HEADED THIS WAY.

A Terrific Storm Sweeping Rapidly Eastward.

It Creates Great Havoc to the Railway Interests of Oregon and Washington.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 16.—According to reports received by the weather bureau the storm is rapidly moving eastward. Portland was directly in the storm center yesterday and the temperature fell during the day to thirty-four degrees Fahrenheit, an almost unprecedentedly low temperature for this time of the year. The rain fall during the twenty-four hours, ending at 5 o'clock, was 2.66 inches. A number of washouts are reported on the line of the Northern Pacific between this city and Tacoma. Passenger train No. 1, which was due Saturday noon, was delayed by a break in the track this side of Linnton and did not reach Portland until this morning at 4 o'clock. As the rain has evidently abated, no further trouble along the line is looked for as the result of the present storm. The Oregon Railway and Navigation passenger train, due in Portland at 8:30, was delayed two miles above the Cascade locks, where the bridge across a small mountain stream, was carried out. The passengers were transferred to a train sent up from Portland and arrived at 2:15. In Portland the storm did considerable damage. Sewers and gutters proved entirely inadequate to carry the great volumes of water which swept down from the hills back of the city and passed through every street. The several street car lines were seriously interfered with in many places where the water surged over the tracks, clogging the ties and rails with wreckage, but all lines managed to maintain a moderately regular service throughout the city. The telephone companies kept their linemen out all day untangling the jumble into which the wind blew their wires. Tunnels which carry the wires underneath the streets became filled with water and required the constant services of men with pumps to keep them clear.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 16. — The Puyalluy, Stuck, White and Black river valleys, between Tacoma and Seattle, are flooded, causing such damage to traffic that the Northern Pacific has abandoned its entire service on the Seattle branch. Only one wire out of seven is working between Tacoma and Seattle, making particulars of the flood hard to get, as the railroad is using the single wire. Last night a log jam formed in the White river at Kent, and it was reported that the railroad bridge would have to be blown away to prevent an inundation of the town and valley. A later report says that the bridge has gone out. It will probably be several days before trains to Seattle can be resumed. The rain changed to snow yesterday morning. It continued falling all day and the ground is covered with from one to two inches of snow.

NIAGARA FALLS

Finally Harnessed and Made to Do Work in Buffalo.

Energy Equal to the Combined Strength of 40,000 Horses---Connection With the Bustling City.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 16.—At midnight last night the turning of a switch in the big power house at Niagara Falls completed a circuit which caused Niagara river to flow up hill, so to speak, by returning a fraction of its resistless energy, which had already swept past the gates of Buffalo, back into that city, twenty-seven miles distant. The harness was buckled that hitches the factory wheels of Buffalo to the greatest cataract on earth, and this morning the street cars of the city were operated by falls power.

The buckling of the harness could have been done as well twelve hours earlier, but they did not want to break the Sabbath day.

The distance covered by the line between Buffalo and the falls is twenty-seven miles, and the expert electricians who have the work in charge estimate that the loss of energy will be less than 10 per cent, and may not much exceed 5 per cent. Careful tests are to be made in this connection, the tests covering both night and day and clear as well as rainy weather. The electricians are paying particular attention to this test, as on the perfect insulation of the carrying line depends much of the future success of the undertaking.

ST. JOHN LIVES.

The Young Wife Murderer Seen in Kansas City.

The Story of His Death and Burial Just Before the Time Set for His Trial Proves a Canard.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Nov. 16.—Considerable excitement both here and at Oklahoma City prevails over the report that Harry St. John, son of ex-Governor John P. St. John, of Kansas, is not dead, as announced three weeks ago. Young St. John was under indictment for the murder of his wife and his trial was to have come shortly after his death was announced. The story of St. John's probable return to life was started a week after his supposed burial, and though it was strenuously denied, it will not down. It has now been revived by a reliable El Reno man, who declared that within a week he has seen St. John walking on the streets of Kansas City with Judge Pitzer, of this city, his former associate in the legislature and afterwards his attorney. It is a significant fact that as yet it has not been shown that anybody but the doctors and undertakers saw Mr. St. John after his death was announced.

"PAR EXCELLENCE."

Verdict Passed Upon the New Packard Piano

By Thousands Who Visited the New Warerooms Last Saturday Afternoon and Evening---Strictly a Home Product.

It is with a good deal of pride and satisfaction that the builders of the new Packard pianos and organs viewed the crowds who visited their new warerooms in the Schmitz block last Saturday afternoon and evening; and this feeling must be intensified by the universal verdict of the throngs who not only saw but also heard the beautiful instruments on exhibition.

The public, too, should have a feeling of gratification in the matter. The Packard Piano is a home product, being manufactured by the Fort Wayne Organ company, whose organs are to now be found in every civilized country on the globe. Their new departure in the manufacture of pianos will no doubt prove a highly successful venture.

It seems now as if their greatest aspirations regarding the manufacture of an upright piano which for excellence of tone—one having resonance, power and sweetness—a quick repeating action and well balanced scale all clothed in a case of artistic design and finish, are to be realized. Next to an even scale, probably the strongest point par excellence in the Packard piano is the claim of the company for great durability of make. Pianos that quickly wear out, in which the tone becomes "tin-panny," the action loose or the other extreme, heavy and sticky, while the case cracks and splits are not unknown, perhaps not uncommon. The greatest care is taken in the building of these pianos. One is never completed in less than six months, while only well seasoned, kiln-dried, specially selected lumber is used.

There were four styles of cases in different wood and two of different scale shown in the exhibit. The cases are elegant with not so much of ornamentation that they were displeasing. The woods used are walnut, bird's-eye maple, Hungarian oak and mahogany. A piano with case of bird's-eye maple stands in the window, and attracts much attention with the beauty of its workmanship. There were nine styles of organs, a special size suitable for use in churches, being particularly noticeably. A self-playing piano also attracted marked attention, being the first time one has been seen in this city. A paper roll is used by an ingenious arrangement to produce different selections, on the same principle as the management of the orchestrian at Robison park. This piano was also manufactured in this city. Messrs. Glenn Mills and William Spiegel are in charge of the large pleasant rooms and are courteous gentlemen, whose pleasure is to exhibit the instruments of which the citizens have reason to be as proud as the manufacturers.

Miss Tillie Lindemann assisted during the afternoon and evening in demonstrating the tone of the pianos.

Handsome souvenirs of lithograph calendars with embossed covers were presented to the ladies who called to see the exhibit.

The cycling season is about over and the local dealers and manufacturers are all busy considering plans for 1897. The outlook is very promising. All of the local manufacturers have turned out their '97 models and are now experimenting with them. The new wheels show no radical departure, but appear to be improvements on those of 1896.

WHO'LL GET THE PLUM.

Fairbanks Seems to Have the Inside Track.

Harrison May Enter the Race---McKean Will Throw Support to a Compromise Candidate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 16.—The fact that the republicans will control the legislature on joint ballot and will elect a United States senator to succeed Daniel W. Voorhees has caused interest to center in the republican nomination for that office in a peculiar degree.

Charles W. Fairbanks, the millionaire railroad solicitor, has been an avowed candidate for the senate for the last six years and has been the recognized favorite of Chairman Gowdy and of the party managers generally. He has been conspicuous in Indiana campaigns, contributing liberally of his substance and doing yeoman service on the stump. When the victory of 1894 gave reasonable assurances of controlling the legislature in 1896 another Richmond in the person of Riley W. McKeen, president of the Vandalia Railroad company, appeared in the field, and, with the opening of the campaign in March last he established headquarters in this city and began a systematic campaign for the nomination.

But it is conceded that McKeen is practically out of the race and will throw his support to a compromise candidate, and those who represent the conservative element believe that there are two other elements from which they could draw for a compromise man—from those who are pledged to Fairbanks as against McKeen only, and those who are unpledged and prepared to do what is best for the party as a whole.

Fairbanks' supporters claim he has enough votes already pledged to nominate him and that it will be impossible for the opposition to concentrate on any man who could make an inroad upon his strength. His friends, however, are leaving nothing to chance, but are working like Trojans to secure additions to his strength in the caucus.

It is even intimated by some of Fairbanks' friends that their favorite would be willing to wait another two years and would step aside for Harrison to enter the senate, but this is regarded as a statement that should be received with some grains of allowance, for others assert that if the ex-president is the next senator he must fight for it.

So far as known, Mr. Harrison has given no intimation of his wishes and no one has yet consented to speak for him. The ex-president is decidedly friendly to McKeen and the latter to him, and there is no question but the strength of the one in the caucus would be the strength of the other with the addition that Harrison's popularity with the people would make to it.

The situation is full of interest to the people of Indiana and this has been heightened recently by the declarations of several senators and representatives-elect that they are neither for Fairbanks nor McKeen, but for Harrison.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

The Blind Can See by the Use of X Rays.

A Boy Who Has Been Blind Fourteen Years Sees Plainly Through the Flouriscope.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—Lucien Bacilgalupi, a totally blind boy, says he can see objects by the use of the cathode ray. Such is the statement made by Dr. Waverly Clark, a physician. Young Bacilgalupi's father conducts a photograph and kinetoscope establishment here and among the attractions of the place is an X ray apparatus. The boy, in company with Dr. Clark, visited his father's place, and in fun was asked to go into the X ray room and ascertain if he could see anything. The boy has been totally blind for fourteen years, but as soon as he put the flouriscope to his eyes, he exclaimed that he could see. He was able to distinguish different objects, but without the use of the X rays was as blind as ever. Dr. Clark, in speaking of the matter, said that there was probably a film over the boy's eyes which was impenetrable by ordinary lights, but which was pierced by the powerful rays.

ALL QUIET AT CANTON.

Mr. McKinley Attends Church and Takes a Drive.

CANTON, O., Nov. 16.—With an ideal autumnal day as an inspiration for a drive President elect McKinley yesterday afternoon enjoyed a ride in the family carriage, accompanied by Webb C. Hayes, who was a guest at the McKinley home today.

Mr. Hayes accompanied Major McKinley to the First Methodist church, the son of the former presiding and the president elect walking to and from the place of worship. Major McKinley sat in the pew with his aged mother and his sister, whom he saw in their carriages after the services.

In addition to receiving other callers and entertaining Mr. Hayes, who is a friend of the family of many years' standing, Major McKinley did not forget to call at his mother's home, and he also spent as much time as he could with his wife, whose health has improved considerably during the last few days.

One Bryan Elector in Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 16.—Complete official returns have been tabulated by counties showing that Smith, one of the Bryan electors, runs 2,000 ahead of the lowest McKinley elector and is elected. The other twelve Bryan electors run from 300 to 700 behind twelve of the McKinley electors. The total vote of the state was 444,243, as follows: McKinley, 218,055; Bryan, 217,797; Palmer, 5,018; Levering, 3,374. McKinley's average plurality, 258 on the vote for electors.

A FIERCE BATTLE.

Spaniards and Cubans Now Engaged in a Conflict.

The Stronghold of the Insurgents Has Been Attacked and the Engagement Decides the Fate of the Cause.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 16.—Cipher dispatches just received report a fierce battle in progress in Pinar del Rio. "It is believed Maceo and Weyler have met. The reports of fire arms have been almost incessantly heard for several hours." No details of the engagement are given other than the statement that a most decisive engagement is being waged. The last definite news of Captain General Weyler located him at Olesya, within a few miles of Maceo's intrenchments, where the battle is raging. The dispatch adds: "Insurgent forces are well located in the hills and are pouring a hot fire into the Spanish troops, which have repeatedly been driven back in attempts to capture the Cuban stronghold. The insurgents have the advantage of position, being at a great elevation, but the Spaniards are making a most deperate attack. From a distance it looks as if several towns are in flames. The sky is lighted up by the constant fire of the artillery. Whether or not Maceo, himself, is directing the insurgent's tactics cannot at this time be learned."

THE OLD COURT HOUSE.

The County Commissioners Discuss It.

Alterations Being Made in the New Quarters---News of the Day in the Courts.

The county commissioners this afternoon made an official visit to the Saengerbund building and ordered certain alterations in preparation for its occupancy for court house purposes.

The board is considering the best means of procedure in tearing down the old court house. They have not settled whether they will sell it as it stands, or let the contract for tearing it down. There is a bare possibility that they may hire the workmen themselves. The old court house cost $90,000 and it contains a good deal of material which it is thought can be used in the new building.

The work of tearing down will begin immediately after the building is vavated, which will be as soon as the fall settlement is made by the auditor and treasurer, the latter part of December.

SENATOR VOORHEES

Said to Be Slowly Dying From Paresis.

An Helpless as a Child and Totally Unable to Do Anything for Himself.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 16.—Immediately following the election, friends of Senator Voorhees began an inquiry into his condition, with a view to learning whether or not to make a fight for the complimentary nomination of the democratic caucus. It is now announced by them that no effort will be made in his behalf.

The reason assigned is that the senator is beyond all hopes of recovery and that even were the empty honor bestowed on him his mental condition is such that he would not even understand its import. He is suffering from paresis, and has reached a stage where he is utterly unconscious of what is going on around him. The senator's friends here were advised several months ago that he was failing in health and that it was not likely that he would take any part in the campaign, but he was supposed to be suffering from rheumatism and the hope was indulged in that he would soon be well.

Two months ago he was taken to Terre Haute, where he has been staying every since, and his friends have at last learned the truth regarding his condition. When he arrived at Terre Haute he was in a pitiable mental condition and has since grown steadily worse. He has a room at the Terre Haute house and has not been seen outside of it since he reached that city, some two months ago. He is under the charge of a nurse who cares for him constantly, and his meals are served in the rooms, where no one is permitted to see him.

A friend of the senator who visited Terre Haute Friday says that he is as helpless as a child, being totally unable to do anything for himself, and that he is slowly breathing out his life. His physical health is good, but he has aged greatly within the past four months and his death is but a question of a few weeks.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 16.—A special to the News from Terre Haute, Ind., says: "United States Senator Voorhees is circulating among his old friends here daily, and gives promise of a speedy restoration to his old time vigor. He expects to return to Washington within the next two weeks."

TALKED FROM PULPITS.

Christian Temperance Workers Given a Hearing.

Eighty Pastors of Eighty Churches Invite the Visiting Lecturers to Address Their Congregations.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 16.—Yesterday women preached in eighty pulpits in St. Louis. Congregational, Methodist Episcopal, Baptist, Christian, Presbyterian and Evangelical churches all opened their doors to lecturing members of the Women's Christian Temperance union. Many were lost for a while in contemplation of the strangeness of the event, but the feeling of novelty soon wore off and the sermons became fully as effective, if not more so than those of the regular pastors. Forty years since, when Mrs. Anotinette Blackburn-Brown, of Orange, N. J., startled the ecclesiastical world by becoming ordained as a minister, the presence of nearly 100 women in as many pulpits in one city would have been impossible.

MR. BRYAN TO GO HUNTING.

The Ex-Candidate and Other Democrats Will Shoot in Missouri.

ATCHISON, Kas., Nov. 16.—W. J. Bryan will leave his home in Lincoln, Neb., this evening, on his way to Missouri to hunt with Governor Stone, Chairman Jones, Congressman-elect Bland and others. J. W. Orr, of Atchison, who was in Lincoln Saturday and called on Mr. Bryan, says Mr. Bryan is receiving a thousand letters a day and that one of them offered him $50,000 for thirty lectures. Mr. Bryan showed his collection of curiosities sent him during the campaign. Among them are four live eagles, which eat $2 worth of fresh meat every day.

LEFT BEHIND.

"Dr. Elmer's" Wife Remains in the City

While the Doctor Does a Fake Hypnotist Role in Indiana Towns.

A special from Anderson to the Indianapolis Sentinel says that "Dr. Elmer, a fake hypnotist, whose headquarters are at Fort Wayne and who has been working Indiana, was placed under arrest at his hotel in this city at 4 o'clock this morning before he had time to skip the town, after being exposed by three Indianapolis girls, who went under assumed names and were his subjects. Their right names were Charlotte Pogue, Alice Elliott and Adelia Wagoner. The latter lives on West Washington street. Miss Elliott, aged eleven years, lives at 319 West Market street, and Miss Pogue had charge of a display in the food exhibit. They were the subjects upon whom he practiced his fake hypnotic powers. Miss Pogue did the "three day dead act." His treatment of them was inhuman and he wound up by trying to beat them out of their wages.

He skipped town today after being compelled to settle all bills in full under direction of the police. He had a woman with him who posed as his wife. He left her behind and she lives at Fort Wayne."

LOCAL LINES.

SALOON MEN UP.

Affidavits Filed Against Three Prominent Liquor Men.

A Harvest of Train Jumpers Gathered by Pennsylvania Officers---News in Police Circles.

Affidavits have been filed against Daniel Hutzell, James Goodfellow and Henry A. Wiebke, three well known saloon keepers. Hutzell, who runs a place on West Main street, was charged with Sunday desecration, having sold liquor at his place on Sunday. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $10.50. Officer Pageler made the arrest.

James Goodfellow and Harry Wiebke conduct adjoining places on Calhoun street. They are charged by Officer Greer with violation of the Nicholson law by not taking their screens down on Sunday. Their cases were set for this afternoon.

MORE TRAIN JUMPERS.

Lieutenant Stoll and Officer Fuchshober, of the Pennsylvania company, made four arrests on Sunday, the offenders being caught in the act of riding on trains. They gave their names as Ned Shark, Arthur Bell, Patrick F. Kelly and John Busacker. The two former were boys. Shark had in his possession a silver watch of Standard make, with the number 2,294,686 stamped on the lid. When asked where he got it the answer was, "Found it along the railroad track." Bell had numerous articles in his pocket, including a revolver, all of which he said he had "found or given to him." The officers think that some of the property was stolen.

Mayor Scherer sent the four prisoners to jail for fifteen days apiece.

SOME THEFTS

The room of George Walda, at 72 East Main street, was entered last night and a number of articles, including a razor and hair brush, are missing.

A horse blanket was stolen from the buggy of A. J. Brase, of Jefferson and Griffith streets.

A black overcoat was stolen from M. W. Fay, at the Wayne hotel, last Saturday night.

The Fort Wayne Gas company has been laying extensions on Runion avenue, and in compliance with the city ordinance they hang out lanterns along the trenches at night to prevent accidents. Somebody walked away with several of these lanterns Saturday night and the officers have been furnished with the names of the supposed thieves. The company will not prosecute if the lanterns are returned.

NOTES.

Thomas Boling, a watchman for the Pennsylvania company, at the Broadway crossing was taken ill at his post of duty last night and was conveyed in the city ambulance, to his home, 362 West Main street.

Burglars effected an entrance into the residence of Mr. Crabes, at 68 Masterson street, last night, but the intruders were frightened during their operations and left without having procured anything.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Charles Harrigan passed a check for $4.35 at Levy's shoe store today, which was pronounced a forgery. The name of P. A. Randall was signed. Harrigan was locked up pending an investigation.

DIED IN OLD AGE.

Abraham DeHart Passes Away in His Eighty-Seventh Year.

He Helped to Build the Cathedral---Other Deaths and Funerals.

Abraham DeHart, of 38 Wall steet, died at an early hour this morning. Death was due to the infirmities of old age, he having attained his eighty-seventh year. A widow and several children survive him. Deceased was actively identified with the building of the Cathedral and he had the honor of mixing all the mortar that was used in that building from the foundation to the roof.

Edward Albert, son of John E. Joseph and wife, of the Ellison farm, died of spasms, aged three days. The funeral took place this morning at Prairie Grove.

Louise Schmidt, aged seventeen years, died last night at the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth. The deceased came from Dearborn county.

The large attendance at the funeral of unfortunate Fred Bulmahn Sunday afternoon, attested the popularity of the deceased and the esteem in which he was held. Services were conducted by Rev. C. Gross at the house and the church, there being two sermons, one English and one German.

John Anderson, an old resident of Milan township, who some years ago went south, died Saturday at Cleveland, Tenn. The remains will probably be interred at that place.

O. W. Olds, an operator for the Pennsylvania company at Nevada, Ohio, died Thursday and was buried Saturday. He was well known here among trainmen.

The funeral of the late George Phillips took place this afternoon from the church, in St. Joe township.

School Children's Eyes Afflicted.

GOSHEN, Ind., Nov. 16.—Fifteen pupils of the Fifth street school were sent to their homes on the advice of Dr. J. A. Cook, secretary of the city board of health, because of an affliction of the eyes known to the medical profession as catarrhal conjunctivitis, which causes the eye to become inflamed and bloodshot, resulting later in severe swelling and the emission of pus. The disease is infectious, and if not checked was liable to become epidemic in the school.

"CUTE'S" CUTENESS.

Dog's Sagacity Saves the Aldine Block From Ruins.

Discovers a Fire and Arouses Slumbering Inmates---The Chapter of Accidents.

Henry Pantland, of Schone & Veith's undertaking establishment, owns a dog which is now the hero of the hour. "Cute," as he is called, is bow-legged and bob-tailed, but he is a King Charles spaniel with royal blue blood in his veins for all of that; and he has the acme of canine intelligence.

In Schone & Veith's is where "Cute" makes his home. This establishment is in the Aldine block two doors from the Aldine restaurant, which is conducted by Cratsley & Allen. At 3:30 o'clock this morning Mr. Schone, who sleeps in the shop, was aroused from his slumbers by a tugging at his bed clothes. He arose and followed the dog to a rear door, where he was startled to find a lurid glare reflected against the McDonald building adjoining.

An investigation showed the kicthen of the Aldine restaurant was afire and the flames were rapidly gaining headway. Mr. Schone sent in a telephone alarm to the central station and the department promptly responded. It was the work of half an hour to extinguish the blaze, but it was not accomplished until about $250 worth of damage had been done to the interior.

The origin of the blaz was traced to an overheated range which set fire to the floor, thus communicating to the other wood work. Had the flames been unimpeded a little while longer, it is likely that the Aldine block would have been a smouldering mass of ruins at dawn this morning.

The building is owned by D. N. Foster, who is reimbursed for his loss by ample insurance.

ACCIDENTS.

The team hitched to No. 3 hose cart, while making a run to the fire this morning, fell in front of the City hall. The high speed at which the animals were going at the time caused them to slide about fifteen feet, severely lacerating their legs.

Yesterday, a party of young gentlemen, consisting of Fred Bischoff, Harry Eberline, Otto Stahl and Robert Meyer, went driving into the country. When near Goeglein one of the horses fell in the harness and had to be left by the roadside while the boys came back to the city to procure a doctor.

Walter Daugherty, of 227 Wells street, while out hunting yesterday was shot through the big toe of his left foot by the accidental discharge of a gun.

The Evening Sentinel.

BY E. A. K BAUMETT.

MONDAY, NOV. 16, 1896.

It looks now almost certain that John Wanamaker will receive the election of United States senator from Pennsylvania when the legislature meets.

The latest agitation in English society throughout her majesty's empire has been caused by the truth that dancing is going out of fashion, says the Boston Herald. It may be said that the terpsichorean art is dying a natural death, and in a few years it will be a thing of the past. Women's clubs and the search for knowledge and the things that uplift the mind to a higher scale is taking its place.

The Salvation Army, which has already earned the respect and gratitude of the public by its various benefactions, has undertaken the cultivation of another broad field of philanthropy. Its latest enterprise is as novel as it promises to be useful, and if the experiment proves successful it will no doubt be as prolific of good as the most sanguine of its projectors could hope for. The scheme is to provide homes and employment for persons who, having served terms in prison, are released upon the expiration of their sentences or by pardon. Through the generosity of George O. Montgomery, they have secured a farm of 300 acres, near San Francisco, upon which they propose to make their first experiment. Farming and various mechanical trades will be taught, and so long as no other employment can be found released convicts will be allowed to remain in the colony, a portion of the product of their labor going toward their maintenance and the balance to the individual for use when he has worked out his salvation by rebuilding his good name. The institution will be open to all sorts of bonvicts. The army will direct its energies to reclaiming those who are impenitent, and assist all to better lives and more lucrative employment.

The United States this week has sent out cargoes of wheat consigned to India, Australia and South Africa, in addition to the usual shipments to the West Indies and to practically all the nations of Eastern Europe. Ordinarily South Africa gets its wheat from Australia or from India, but this year those two countries have become importers instead of exporters of wheat, and America is the source to which they are looking for supplies. The picture of the United States forwarding great ship loads of grain to a dozen different nations is one which cannot fail to inspire in loyal Americans a feeling of great pride in the marvelous resources of their country, and it is certain, too, to give to all the people of this country a feeling of supreme confidence that the end of the period of depression in agriculture is approaching, and the time is close at hand when the business of the American farmers will be restored to a profitable and prosperous basis.

Work Advised for the Future.

Under the auspices of the Lincoln Bimetallic club, Mr. Bryan delivered at Lincoln Saturday evening his first formal address since the election, sounding what is generally accepted as the keynote of himself and his followers in the campaign which is to continue for the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver. The meeting was held at the Funk Opera house, which was crowded.

Mr. Bryan was in fairly good voice and was enthusiastically applauded. After referring in a congratulatory way to the result in Nebraska, he proceeded with that part of his address around which centered the most interest, saying: "Well, now, I want to say a word for the future. We have passed through this campaign and we have been defeated, and I want you to remember this, that there is not in this land a single advocate of free coinage who is not willing to abide by the decision of the American people without complaint. You do not find among the silver men those who say, as a distinguished republican in New York said, 'We may not abide by the result.' I am proud that in our ranks we had men who so loved this form of government that no matter what the people say they rule and we bow to their supremacy.

"Now I want you to take up every question that concerns your national government, every question which concerns your state government, every question which concerns your city government and make it a subject of study and let it be known that the people who banded themselves together to secure the restoration of the money of the constitution are not only going to secure that, but they are going to be an active, effective, telling force in making government good from the highest government in the land down to the lowest in your city or ward. We can build up a fighting force, my friends, which will be invincible. If we can convince the people that we are in earnest, that we are not seeking to control legislation in order to secure some personal advantage at the expense of others, and that in our comprehension of the needs of the people we take into consideration all the people, seeking to secure just, wise legislation, I want to say to you, my friends, that we will lay the foundation for enduring success."

SIXTH GRAND COUNCIL.

Annual Gathering of the American Sons of Columbus.

Elaborate Preparation for the Entertainment of Guests—Business and Social Program.

There exists in this city a society of Catholics known as the Sons of Columbus. The organization was conceived seven years ago by Hon. P. S. O'Rourke. The first colony was started here and the order has flourished so successfully that its branches now reach over the states of Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and New Jersey. The organization is partly benevolent and partly social. It is a secret order which includes points similar to the Odd Fellows or the Knights of Pythias, Unlike many other Catholic societies, it has no spiritual director, although its aims and purposes fully meet the approval of the Catholic clergy.

The sixth annual meeting of the Grand Council of the order will convene in this city tomorrow at the Sons of Columbus hall, in the Lau block.

First meeting will convene at 10 a m., when the various committees for convention work will be appointed There will be an adjournment and the balance of the day will be devoted to committee work.

At 8:15 p. m. a musical and literary entertainment will be given in honor of the visiting delegates and members, and the following program will be rendered:

The meeting will close Wednesday night with the initiatory ceremonies. The executive committee in charge of the affair is as follows:

Dr. E. J. McOscar, F. O. Ehinger, F. X. Schuler, Robert Reilly, Henry Beadell, F. G. Monahan, G. B. Grimme, E. J. O'Connell, Ed Schele, H. A. Zurbuch, T. J. Foley.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

State Meeting to be Held at Muncie This Month.

Miss Jennie T. Mason, secretary of the Indiana Union, has made announcement of the arrangements for the state meeting at Muncie, November 26 to 29. The number of Endeavorers in Indiana, she says, is between 75,000 and 76,000. The union includes senior societies, young people's societies, intermediate societies, mothers' societies and junior societies of Christian Endeavor. In order that mothers may attend, there will be a room near the convention hall, in charge of a trained nurse, where little ones may be left during convention sessions. This room will be fitted up with "jumpers," hammocks, cribs, toys, etc., for the comfort of children. It will also contain a telephone, and a physician will be there. The state is divided into twenty Christian Endeavor districts. Each district will have headquarters near convention halls, decorated in district colors and district flags. In addition to the convention sessions, evangelistic meetings will be held in the stores, shops, factories and in the various suburbs of the city. Among the speakers of the convention are the Rev. B. Fay Mills, Fort Edward, N. Y.; Prof. Graham Taylor, Chicago University, Chicago, Ill.; the Rev. J. F. Cowan, Pittsburg, Pa; the Rev. L. S. Keyser, Dayton, Ohio; the Rev. F. W. McCauley, Toledo, Ohio; Dr. J. C. Caldwell, Shelbyville, Ind.; the Rev. J. E. Pounds, Indianapolis; Mrs. F. F. McCrea, Indianapolis.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. L. L. Henson went to Chicago this morning.

Professor Allen, of the Bluffton Banner, was in the city Saturday.

The Apollo Musical society will meet at the rooms in the Lau block for rehearsal this evening.

Mrs. W. S. Stair, of 43 West Superior street, is slowly recovering from a dangerous attack of brain tumor.

Mrs. Enoch Cox and Mrs. E. F. Wagner left on Pennsylvania train No 8 last evening on an extended tour of the east. They will spend a few days each in Baltimore, Boston and Harrisburg, besides making short visits to other important cities.

Ben Hur lodge No. 15 will have a fine program at the close of its order of business tonight, as follows: Short address, Norton Conover; piano solo, Mrs. Anna Lepper; recitation, Mrs. Dr. Heaton; vocal solo, W. D. Williams; recitation, Geo. S. Hail.

There will be no diphtheria, scarlet fever, nor worms for children, says a prominent physician, if they eat plentifully of onions every day, especially when there is a scarcity of fresh fruit. The juice of the pine apple will cut the membrane from the throat in diphtheria when nothing else will, says the Scientific American.

Professor Hicks' prognostications for November have been correct so far, and it remains to be seen if the weather for the remainder of the month will be as he foretold it. The 16th to the 18th will be a regular storm period. Cold will follow. From about the 21st to 23d look for reactionary storms, followed later by changes that naturally follow at this season. According to his predictions Thanksgiving will be anything but a pleasant day. The month, he says, will close with very cold weather. Prepare for a hard December.

The opening of the quail season last week took to the country almost every Fort Wayne sportsman who could muster up a gun and dog of his own or could manage to borrow these necessary adjuncts of successful quail hunting. A good many went out for a day, returning the same evening, while others went out for a two or three days' hunt and not a few took their departure with the intention of remaining in the quail fields for weeks and perhaps a month if the sport proved as good as anticipated. The comparatively few who have returned report that quail are more plentiful than they have been for years and most of them succeeded in bagging a goodly number of birds.

The exhibition given under the auspices of the Society of Art came to a close last Saturday evening. The cultured people have never had a more artistic collection of art to look upon than this one and the society is to be commended for its enterprise. Mr. Warner, whose collection it was, paid a high compliment to Fort Wayne, when in conversation with a lady, he said that "in no city in the west, not even in Chicago, had he met with any higher cultured people in art education than in this city." Mr. Warner resided in Washington, D. C, many years and has been associated with what is best in art and knows whereof he speaks. A number of choice water colors and etchings have been sold in the city, and we will welcome other exhibitions if they are as fine as this one.

Warden Charles Harley has filed a report of the northern prison, in which is shown that the number of prisoners on November 1, 1895, was 908, and on the same date, 1896, 851. The number received during the first year was 441, and the second year 427. The number that were discharged during the first year was 423, and during the second year 396. The governor pardoned or paroled 40 during the first year and 22 during the second. The report of Chaplain Currie related to his services and mentions the prison choir, prison church, prison Christian Endeavor, prison school and the prison library. He baptized 114 men; 223 belonged to the church; 53 were discharged by letter and 3 died. The Christian Endeavor had 353 members.

The Warsaw Times has this to say of a Fort Wayne drummer: "Abe Minsky, a traveling salesman for a wholesale grocery house, who visits the trade in Warsaw regularly every week has won several bets on the result of the late election at different stations on his route. Among the wagers he laid was one with a young lady of Warsaw, whose name he could not be induced to divulge. Abe is an ardent republican and the young Warsaw damsel thought it absolutely out of the question for Shively to be defeated for the governorship of Indiana and straightway wagered five kisses—the genuine article—against a five pound box of Gunther's candy. Minsky won by a great, big, healthy margin and will, perhaps, come along next week and claim his property."

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McDonald arranged a neighborhood surprise party, en masque, in honor of their daughter Esther's thirteenth birthday anniversary. After the young guests had arrived and surprised their young hostess, Miss Esther in turn masked and mingled with the others. Miss Brenda Fisher played appropriate selections on the piano. At 9 o'clock they removed their masks and a dainty supper was served. The guests and characters assumed are as follows: Esther McDonald, Old Fashioned Girl; Bertha Yarnelle, Flower Girl; Margie Olds, Quaker; Edith Hughes, Quaker Girl; Della Rossell, Flower Girl; Laura Fee, Marguerite; Martha Hackett, Japanese; Florence Griebel, Gypsy; Louise Potter, Ghost; Jessie Reitze, Ghost; Clara Hull, Woodland Nymph; Carlie Stapleford, Norman Lass; Leonora Moderwell, Jockey Girl; Ben Bell, Old Grandmother; Charley Hughes, Baby; Norman Olds, Dude Cholly; Charlie Hanna, Louis XIV; Carl Deither, Clown; Carl Woodworth, Sunflower; Guy Olmstead, Li Hung Chang; Ray Barrows, Flower Girl; Jay Read, Dude Cholly; Frank Beaver, Ghost. The characters were all good, Li Hung Chang and the Dudes Cholly especially so.

Jessie Mae Hall and her husband, Mark E. Swan, are registered at the Randall.

Mrs. Clifford Morganthaler, of Chicago, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mungen.

The dinner that was to be given at Plymouth Congregational church tomorrow has been postponed.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rohan, of West Creighton avenue—a daughter. Mr. Rohan is chief bookkeeper in the White bank.

Quite a number of diphtheria cases are reported at Auburn. Dr. Bulson performed four operations of intubation there last week.

The Magnolia jubilee singers will give their best concert at the Grace Reformed church tomorrow evening Doors open at 7:30.

The Sewing society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. Christian Nahrwald, of 147 East Lewis street, next Thursday afternoon.

Charles Scoville, representing the Auburn Buggy Co; William Studebaker, of Felix Marston & Co, Chicago, are among the guests at the Randall.

Professor E. Myers and F. A. Sullivan, of Springfield, Ohio, who represent the Champion College of Embalming, are at the Randall hotel. They come to give lessons in embalming.

The Grace Reformed church was filled last evening into the gallery to hear Pastor Zartman's first sermon on Bunyon's "Pilgrim's Progress," illustrated, and the jubilee singers.

Poundmaster Tremmel was master of ceremonies at three funerals today. That many dogs were poisoned last night on different streets, Smith, Thomas and East Columbia. The carcasses were incinerated at the city crematory.

There will be an important meeting of Degree of Honor No. 2, A. O. U. W., tomorrow evening, one of the interesting features of which will be several initiations by the drill corps. It is desired that there be a full attendance at the meeting.

The ladies' society of Bethany Presbyterian church will give an old time concert at the church, Friday evening, November 27. An excellent program has been arranged and it bids fair to be one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Y. P. S. C. E. this evening at the office of Dr. Schrader, on East Washington street, for the purpose of arranging plans for attending the state convention at Muncie, which convenes on the 26th.

The S S. club has been reorganized with the object of social meetings. Officers were elected as follows: Henry F. Meyer, president; H. W. Kruse, vice president; Henry F. Nahrwald, treasurer; George A. Schock, secretary. Meetings will be held every Thursday evening.

A committee of the Associated Charities appeared before the Ministerial association at a meeting held in the City Y. M. C. A., in behalf of the Relief union, asked that a Thanksgiving collection be taken up in the various churches to assist the union in its relief work.

Tourists who contemplate visiting California during the season 1896-7 will be glad to know that the sumptuous Sunset Limited service of the Southern Pacific will be resumed November. This magnificent train, which is conceded to be the finest and most complete operated upon any transcontinental line, will have several new and attractive features this season. It will leave New Orleans each Monday and Thursday morning, running during the season. Rate of fare same as on the regular trains. Pullman fare added. If you are contemplating a trip to the Pacific Coast, write to W. G. Neimyer, General Western Southeran Pacific Railroad Passenger Agent, 238 Clark street, Chicago, or S. F. B. Morse, General Passenger Agent Southeran Pacific Railroad, New Orleans, La., for further particulars about Sunset Limited.

The revival campaign at the St. Paul M. E. church took on large proportions yesterday. The attendance at the morning service was unusually large, and resulted in one accession to the church and a large number of renewals and conversions. Rev. M. C. Cooper preached an impressive sermon on "The Baptism of the Holy Spirit," and Evangelist Saylor's singing moved the audience to great religious enthusiasm. At 7:30 o'clock in the evening one of the largest congregations in the history of the church was present, and so impressive was the service under the direction of the pastor and Evangelist Saylor, that when the invitation was given, fully seventy-five people pressed their way to the altar of prayer. When the evangelist sang the solo, "My Angel Mother," the entire audience was moved to tears, and there were many requests for prayers. The meetings will continue each evening this week, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

A SOCIETY WOMAN.

MAY BE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERATION.

Mrs. Alice Ives Breed of Lynn, Mass., Is Among the Prominent Candidates for the Honor—Has Two Daughters Also Conspicuous in Swelldom.

MRS. Alice Ives Breed of Lynn, Mass., is the woman most talked of for the next president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Breed is a woman of fashion. She is also a great traveler, a systematic worker in her intellectual and club life, and, above all, is a devoted mother and homemaker. Mrs. Breed has hosts of admirers in Chicago, gained during her visits to Mrs. H. O. Stone, whom she has known for many years. Her house on the rock bound coast of Massachusetts is rich in evidences of wealth and culture. There the most distinguished men and women in the world of art, music and literature may be met, drawn as they are to the beautiful place by the intelligent sympathy of the gracious hostess. Personally Mrs. Breed is most attractive, combining in her manner the graceful charm of the well bred woman with a simplicity and sincerity and render her wonderfully engaging. Besides discharging the social duties that fall to her lot Mrs. Breed superintends the education of her five children. Two of them, Miss Alice Breed and Miss Florence Breed, are just out in society, and passed a couple of months of last winter in Chicago, where they were the guests of Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Fernando Jones. Mrs. Breed has also given much time to philanthropic and reform work, being the president of several large charitable societies in Boston and Lynn. Since the organization of the General Federation she has been prominently connected with its plans, her general experience in club work making her a valuable counselor in its deliberations. It is this wide experience, together with her unusual executive ability and delightful personality, that has marked her as the strongest candidate for the highest position in the gift of the great Federation of Women's Clubs.

ALICE IVES BREED.

American Camels.

The Phoenix (Arizona) Gazette says: "About thirty years ago a number of camels, nearly 150, were brought to Arizona, having been purchased by the United States government for the purpose of carrying supplies to the regular troops stationed in the territory. After a thorough trial they were found to be useless, as the gravelly sands of the deserts cut their feet, making them unfit for travel. The entire lot was offered for sale, and some were purchased, but the larger number were turned loose to graze and roam where they pleased. For awhile they seemed to dwindle in number, but of late years they have multiplied rapidly, and today probably 1,000 of these animals roam over the desert. A miner recently counted 518 in one herd on the Gila river, near the White mountains, and it is known that some graze in the Bradshaws, while a few roam over the hills in Mojave county."

Danger to Pearls.

It is pretty generally understood by women who have achieved choice pearl rings that while clear, pure water does not injure the gem, soap and water will soon affect their luster and color, and in time will cause them to peel, or shed an outer coat. This crumbling, however, takes place even when the gems are most carefully treated, and when the tendency is noted the ring or brooch or necklace should be promptly taken to a jeweler. The course of treatment often prescribed by that authority is that of the rest cure. Put it aside in its box, carefully closed from light and air, and a few weeks, or possibly a month or two, of this lying fallow will often entirely restore the original beauty and health of the gem.

Why He Was Annoyed.

"Sometimes," remarked Methuselah to his favorite great-great-great-great-grandchild; "sometimes I wish I had died young; say, in my sixth or seventh century."

"Why, grandpop?"

"Well, it is peculiarly annoying to me to hear my ninety-fourth wife say, as she does every day or two: 'You are certainly old enough to know better.'"

How to Mend China.

Take a very thick solution of gum arabic and water and stir into it plaster of paris until the mixture becomes a viscous paste. Apply it with a brush to the fractured edges and stick them together. In three days the article cannot be broken at the same place. The whiteness of this cement renders it doubly valuable.

How to Make Sweet Tomato Pickle.

A peck of green tomatoes, 10 small onions, whole spices, pepper, bay leaves, 2 tablespoonfuls of sugar, vinegar and salt. Peel tomatoes like an apple, leaving them whole, and sprinkle with two-thirds of a cupful of salt. After standing 6 hours hang them in a bag to drain all night. Break up cinnamon and cloves and put into a thin muslin bag. Peel and chop the onions, sprinkling them with salt. When tomatoes and onions are well drained, pack in layers in a jar, putting bits of bay leaf and small peppers on each layer. Cover with good vinegar, put in the spice bag and let stand 9 days, having them well covered and pressed down by a cloth, plate and weight. When the time has passed, boil the mixture as it is, adding the sugar. Seal in glass jars after laying horse radish slices and black mustard seed on top of the pickle.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Keep A JUMPIN'

THE storekeeper, politician, salesman, mechanic or laboring man who expects to do much business or make both ends meet this year, must practice the lesson in the above illustration: Two bullfrogs found themselves in a pail of milk from which they could not jump out. One of them was for giving up, and said to the other: "Good bye, I sink, I die." Said his mate: "Brace up you duffer." Keep a jumping and see what turns up. So they kept a jumping up and down all night, and by morning had so churned the milk that it turned to butter, and they jumped off the butter on to land. This is no milk and water tale as you see by the results—the butter. If you want to make both ends meet, "Keep a JUMPING." Don't cry "I sink, I die." You who keeps looking for bad times and a snap will not live long enough to get a snap or see good times. The man who keeps a jumping and buys his FURNITURE, Carpets, Stoves and Dishes of the

INDIANA FURNITURE CO.,

Cash or Time, is the man who sees good times first.

WE WANT MONEY!

This is neither a catch phrase, or a scheme to deceive the people. All business houses have found this year to be a hard one, and we having an especially large sum to raise, have been compelled much against our will to

SACRIFICE OUR STOCK---TO CUT OUR PRICES DOWN,

For we do not like to sell goods below cost, nor would we do so if we were not absolutely compelled to do so

Fort Wayne Journal November 8th, 1895, says: "The dissolution of one of the first and most enterprising clothing houses of this city is in progress. Mr. Harry Friend retires from the firm of Friend's Enterprise, but the firm will not lose its identity or the confidence and prestige it enjoys throughout Northern Indiana and Western Ohio The dissolution is a friendly one, for Mr. Friend retires to engage in the jobbing business at Chicago, and that metropolis wins one of the brightest and most progressive young business men in the West."

It is to satisfy the claim that Mr. Friend holds against us we are compelled to make this sale. The large sum of $10,000 MUST BE RAISED BEFORE JAN. 1st.

An Old Railway Event Recalled to Memory.

The Celebration in Fort Wayne of the Completion of the Ohio and Indiana Road—Local Gossip.

Yesterday was the forty-second anniversary of the grand celebration in this city of the completion of the Ohio and Indiana railroad, which extended from Crestline to Fort Wayne, and which is now a part of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad. The celebration had been advertised far and near and it drew to the city one of the greatest crowds assembled here up to that date. The hotels were able to take care of only a small portion of the crowd and the private residences were thrown open to the visitors to the extent that only a very few families were without guests. There are a few people now living in this city who were here on that day and who retain vivid recollections of the celebration and its stirring scenes. Among them is Tony Kelker, the well known engineer, who was then a conductor and had charge of the construction train that carried all the rails for the track between Delphos and Fort Wayne. The celebration was made the occasion for an excursion from Crestline and intermediate points to Fort Wayne and the number of excursionists was limited by invitation from Samuel Hanna, the president of the road, of which the following is a copy:

OFFICE OF THE OHIO AND INDIANA R. R. Co.,
BUCYRUS, November 4, 1854.

TO C. ROSS, ESQ.

SIR:—The directors of the Ohio and Indiana Railroad company invite you to attend an excursion to Fort Wayne, Ind., on Wednesday, the 15th inst., on the occasion of the completion of the road.

SAMUEL HANNA, President.

"☞Guests from Pittsburg, Cleveland and points east of there can arrive at Crestline at 11 p. m., (and at 12 p. m. at Bucyrus.) Tuesday, where they can lodge; or, by the morning train on Wednesday, they can arrive at Crestline at 11 a. m., and take the mail train, which arrives at Fort Wayne at 8 p. m.

"The excursion train will leave Crestline at 8 a. m. on Wednesday, the 15th inst., and be run per the annexed schedule.

"Guests by the Mad River and Lake Erie railroad, who leave Dayton and Sandusky City by the morning mail train will arrive at Forest in time for the excursion train. Those wishing to take the express train on Mad River and Lake Erie railroad can reach Forest in time for the mail train which arrives at Fort Wayne at 8 p. m.

"Tickets of invitation will serve as 'Free Passes' on any train on the Ohio and Indiana railroad during the 15th and 16th inst; but must be shown to the brakeman at the door of the car.

"An excursion party in mail train from Fort Wayne will meet the excursion train at Lima, where a collation for all the guests will be set in the station house, and will return to Fort Wayne by the excursion train.

"Provision is made at Fort Wayne to accommodate guests at private houses, and a committee in the cars will distribute tickets of invitation to each, with the name of the person whose guest he is to become.

"The return trip arrives at Forest and Crestline in time to connect with trains of other roads at these points, without much delay.

"J. R. STRAUGHAN, "Superintendent.

"Fort Wayne, Nov. 4, 1854."

There are still a few of these invitations in existence, but they are scarce and are valued highly by the owners. The one from which the above is copied is in the possession of Agent John A. Burkett, of Delphos, who received it a few years ago from C. Ross, the man to whom it was originally issued. In his letter to Mr. Burkett, in which was enclosed the ancient paper, Mr. Ross says: "The first roadmaster was Oscar Simons and among the first trainmen and engine crews were John Kelker, Henry Kelker, Charlie Case, Tony Kelker, Pat Conn, Richard Skinner and Pat Rorick." All these men are remembered by the older men now in the service. The first locomotive on the road was brought west by water, via Lake Erie and the canal, and was set up and put on the tracks first at Delphos, Tony Kelker assisting in the work. This engine was named "The Lima" and it was first used in building the road eastward from Delphos. The next engine to arrive was called "Mad Anthony," of which Mr. Kelker was for three years the engineer. Mr. Kelker is still running an engine over the same line. Although three score years old, he is still vigorous and good for many more years of service.

DEATH OF AN OLD SHOPMAN.

The Venerable Rae K. Renfrew, who was stricken with paralysis two or three years ago, died Saturday evening, aged seventy-eight years. The deceased leaves two sons, Robert G. and Benton B., and two daughters, Mrs. H. H. Bosler, of this city, and Mrs. Mary M. Thumm, of Easton, N. D., to mourn his departure. Mrs. Renfrew died several years ago and since that sad event Mr. Renfrew has made his home with his son, Benton, who resides at No. 32 Lavina street, where the funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Renfrew came to Fort Wayne about thirty years ago, from Pennsylvania, and soon secured employment in the Pittsburg shops, where he remained until taken with the disease which terminated in his death. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association and during his long illness received aid from that worthy organization.

BABY STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

The engine hauling Pittsburg freight train No. 81, west-bound, struck and badly injured a little child at Kosciusko, Ind., at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The particulars of the accident are not known here, but it is supposed that the little one had strayed from home and was playing upon the tracks. The child's legs were broken and it was supposed to be injured internally. The name of the father is M. Bibler.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED.

The mangled remains of a man were discovered lying by the tracks near Plymouth at 10:30 o'clock last night. There was nothing about the remains by which they could be identified. Death was no doubt caused by the man falling from a Pittsburg freight train, but which train has not yet been discovered. The remains were turned over to the coroner at Plymouth.

BRIEF MENTION.

Pittsburg engine 53 is in the shop for repairs.

Wabash engine 191 is undergoing repairs in the shops in this city.

Dispatcher C. M. LaRue, of the Pennsylvania, went to Chicago this morning.

Master Mechanic P. F. Smith, of Crestline, was the guest of Fort Wayne friends over Sunday.

Frank Meyers, hammer boy at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is off duty on account of the death of his grandfather.

W. S. Morris, superintendent of motive power of the Chesapeake and Ohio, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

The Wabash officials have resumed the inspection of the eastern branches of the system and will be in this city tomorrow morning.

The Wabash lines earned in the first week of November $197,661, a decrease as compared with the corresponding week of 1895 of $59,226.

Dennis Martin, the sweeper at the Pittsburg machine shop, has recovered from an illness which kept him from his work for some weeks.

The furniture for the new Wabash hospital at Peru was purchased from a firm in St. Louis. It has already arrived and is being put in place.

A Wabash railway employe reports having seen, some days since, two large, guant and famished wolves near the track in the vicinity of Lagro.

H. Jacobs and H. C. C. Neece, of the Pittsburg shops, and F. Gebhardt, of the planing mills, are off duty, the latter on account of sickness in his family.

F. H. Hubbard, one of the officials of the Southern Pacific railroad, passed through this city this morning, riding in his special car attached to Wabash train No. 5.

Louis Kronemiller has taken the place vacated by Herman H. Witte in the Pittsburg planing mills. Mr. Witte has been appointed one of Sheriff Melching's bailiffs.

Revue Industrielle, published in Paris, France, gives an illustration and lengthy description of the large wheels built at the Bass works, in this city, for a firm in Newcastle, Pa. The article is very complimentary to the Bass works.

J. E. Noble left this morning for Indianapolis, thence to St. Louis, on business for the Bass Foundry and Machine works.

Charlie King, clerk at the Bass offices, is on duty again, after a serious attack of tonsilitis, which kept him within doors two weeks.

Machinist Charlie Seibt has gone to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to erect a large engine in the Continental Match factory. The engine was built in the Bass works, in this city.

The horseshoe curve on the Pennsylvania road is made still more attractive by three great water reservoirs just completed near by, from which Altoona will be supplied.

The Santa Fe is now hauling more freight than at any time in its history. It is predicted that its gross earnings this month will exceed $3,000,000 and its net earnings exceed $1,000,000.

On Wednesday the Wabash was 1,500 cars behind its orders for grain cars to ship wheat in and the company is handling fully 50 per cent. more coal for manufactories than sixty days ago.

James Trythall, Joseph Carry, John Benward, M. H. Morrison and J. F. Rost have resumed work at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop after an absence of various lengths and for various reasons.

The Nickel Plate shops at Conneaut, Ohio, which had been running eight hours per day, this morning commenced on full time. The force of workmen has also been increased considerable.

Andrew Stevenson, formerly agent of the Nickel Plate at Columbus, Ohio, and later commercial agent of the Baltimore and Ohio, has been promoted to be a division freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio.

I. G. Welling has been added to the corps of railway detectives, under Lieutenant Stoll. Mr. Welling comes from Cleveland, where a considerable experience in the detective line qualified him for his new and responsible position.

The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road Friday night did the largest freight business that has been done for several weeks. Fifteen heavily loaded freight trains passed through this city from 6 o'clock last night to 6 o'clock this morning.

William Osborn, who died in Waterville, N. Y., on Tuesday, aged eighty-seven years, was a member of the engineering corps which located the Michigan Central across northern Indiana and Michigan, and he was identified in 1865 with the construction of the Union Pacific.

James McCrea, jr., son of First Vice President McCrea, of the Pennsylvania company, on the first of next month becomes engineer of maintenance of way of the Indianapolis and Vincennes. Mr. McCrea, jr., is a graduate of Yale college, and a young man who is sure to make his mark in the railroad world.

The carriage manufacturers of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan held a conference at Cincinnati, Ohio, Thursday, at the Grand hotel and adopted a set of resolutions protesting against the sale of goods to insolvent concerns by supplying men at a large discount, while the solvent firms are compelled to pay 100 per cent. for their wheel and other supplies. There was no organization attempted, the meeting being held solely for the purpose of making a concerted movement against discrimination which is injuring their business.

John Halsworth, one of the Pennsylvania shopmen who was suspended last spring, on account of dull times, was taken into the service again today. He has been assigned to duties in the store room.

Watchman Bolinger, at the Broadway crossing of the Pittsburg, was taken violently ill at 2 o'clock this morning and the patrol wagon was summoned to take him home. He was reported better at noon today.

On Wednesday of this week forty-one carloads of express matter were sent west from Pittsburg over the Pennsylvania lines and the Baltimore and Ohio. Oysters now form an important item of express business.

George Wyatt, Emmett Wyatt, Clark Smith, John Swyhart and James W. Squire, all of Churubusco, formed a hunting party which left over the Wabash this morning for Paragould, Ark. They expect to spend a month in camp.

Machinist C. O. Cook, who has been working in Stony Island for some months, had the misfortune to have his left hand badly injured a week ago. He returned to this city to remain until the wounded hand heals and possibly longer, as he has the promise of work in one of Fort Wayne's shops.

The railroad managers are watching for the two cents a mile bill that is expected to come up when the legislature meets, and will have a good sized lobby there to defeat it. Several attempts have been made to pass the bill making two cents a mile the legal rate of fare, but none has ever got further than an introduction.

The Baltimore and Ohio, it is reported, has entered into a traffic agreement with the Union Pacific for transcontinental business over nearly an air line from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast. That this is the case is evidenced by the appointment of Peter Harvey as Pacific coast freight and passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio, with E. B. Meyers as his assistant.

For the convenience of its stockholders the Pennsylvania Railroad company has recently introduced an innovation in the method of paying dividends. Instead of compelling stockholders to call at the main offices, they are now sent checks payable at some convenient bank, those living out of Philadelphia having their checks drawn on some institution near their homes.

Beginning this evening there will be revival services held in the Berry street M. E. church every night this week except Saturday night. The pastor, C. C. Cissell, desires that every member of the church will be present tonight and bring someone with them. Let us all start in at the beginning and stay until the close. The public is most cordially invited to attend all these services. Rev. J. W. Paschall will preach this evening; subject, "The Endowment of the Holy Spirit," followed by a consecration service.

I have for rent, at 123 Walton avenue, near east yards, a desirable, seven room house, in perfect repair. A very convenient home for a railroad man who takes his train at the east yards.

No Campaign Within our Memory has been Conducted with so much Good Feeling, as the one that has just Closed.

That's the right kind of American citizenship. We cannot all see alike and it isn't best that we should. It is through the clash of ideas that the truth is finally established. If error wins it is only for a day. Truth alone is immortal. The courage of one's convictions is always admirable. It wins the respect of friend and foe alike. The conflict over the real soldier's soon fraternize It is only the stay-at-homes that want to do the fighting after peace is declared.

NOW FOR BUSINESS.

The uncertainty over it is sure to improve. All parties are agreed as to that. Millions of money, hoarded by the poor, will now find its way back into industrial channels. An early session of congress will, by proper legislation, add to the nation's revenues sufficient to meet the current expenses of the government. Prices will make a healthy advance and labor find more steady employment. There's a good time coming and we expect to be in it.

Power's Magic Cream Cure.

WASHINGTON, October 12, 1895
V. W. Power.
DEAR SIR:—I wish to thank you for the ointment you so kindly gave me. I have used it to relieve a cold which had settled in my head and throat and I found that after one application a great change for the better was produced. I think it is the most effective, simple little remedy I have ever seen, and hope it may do others as much good as it did me. Most sincerely yours,

HEADED THIS WAY.

A Terrific Storm Sweeping Rapidly Eastward.

It Creates Great Havoc in the Railway Interests of Oregon and Washington.

PORTLAND, ORE., Nov. 16—According to reports received by the weather bureau the storm is rapidly moving eastward. Portland was directly in the storm center yesterday and the temperature fell during the day to thirty-four degrees Fahrenheit, an almost unprecedentedly low temperature for this time of the year. The rain fall during the twenty-four hours, ending at 5 o'clock, was 2.66 inches. A number of washouts are reported on the line of the Northern Pacific between this city and Tacoma. Passenger train No. 1, which was due Saturday noon, was delayed by a break in the track this side of Linnton and did not reach Portland until this morning at 4 o'clock. As the rain has evidently abated, no further trouble along the line is looked for as the result of the present storm. The Oregon Railway and Navigation passenger train, due in Portland at 5:30, was delayed two miles above the Cascade locks, where the bridge across a small mountain stream, was carried out. The passengers were transferred to a train sent up from Portland and arrived at 2:15. In Portland the storm did considerable damage. Sewers and gutters proved entirely inadequate to carry the great volumes of water which swept down from the hills back of the city and passed through every street. The several street car lines were seriously interfered with in many places where the water surged over the tracks, clogging the ties and rails with wreckage, but all lines managed to maintain a moderately regular service throughout the city. The telephone companies kept their linemen out all day untangling the jumble into which the wind blew their wires. Tunnels which carry the wires underneath the streets became filled with water and required the constant services of men with pumps to keep them clear.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 16.—The Puyallup, Stuck, White and Black river valleys, between Tacoma and Seattle, are flooded, causing such damage to traffic that the Northern Pacific has abandoned its entire service on the Seattle branch. Only one wire out of seven is working between Tacoma and Seattle, making particulars of the flood hard to get, as the railroad is using the single wire. Last night a log jam formed in the White river at Kent, and it was reported that the railroad bridge would have to be blown away to prevent an inundation of the town and valley. A later report says that the bridge has gone out. It will probably be several days before trains to Seattle can be resumed. The rain changed to snow yesterday morning. It continued falling all day and the ground is covered with from one to two inches of snow.

NIAGARA FALLS

Finally Harnessed and Made to Do Work in Buffalo.

Energy Equal to the Combined Strength of 40,000 Horses—Connection With the Bustling City.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 16—At midnight last night the turning of a switch in the big power house at Niagara Falls completed a circuit which caused Niagara river to flow up hill, so to speak, by returning a fraction of its resistless energy, which had already swept past the gates of Buffalo, back into that city, twenty-seven miles distant. The harness was buckled that hitches the factory wheels of Buffalo to the greatest cataract on earth, and this morning the street cars of the city were operated by falls power.

The buckling of the harness could have been done as well twelve hours earlier, but they did not want to break the Sabbath day.

The distance covered by the line between Buffalo and the falls is twenty-seven miles, and the expert electricians who have the work in charge estimate that the loss of energy will be less than 10 per cent., and may not much exceed 5 per cent. Careful tests are to be made in this connection, the tests covering both night and day and clear as well as rainy weather. The electricians are paying particular attention to this test, as on the perfect insulation of the carrying line depends much of the future success of the undertaking.

ST. JOHN LIVES.

The Young Wife Murderer Seen in Kansas City.

The Story of His Death and Burial Just Before the Time Set for His Trial Proves a Canard.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Nov. 16—Considerable excitement both here and at Oklahoma City prevails over the report that Harry St. John, son of ex-Governor John P. St. John, of Kansas, is not dead, as announced three weeks ago. Young St. John was under indictment for the murder of his wife and his trial was to have come shortly after his death was announced. The story of St. John's probable return to life was started a week after his supposed burial, and though it was strenuously denied, it will not down. It has now been revived by a reliable El Reno man, who declared that within a week he has seen St. John walking on the streets of Kansas City with Judge J. H. Pitzer, of this city, his former associate in the legislature and afterwards his attorney. It is a significant fact that as yet it has not been shown that anybody but the doctors and undertakers saw Mr. St. John after his death was announced.

"PAR EXCELLENCE."

Verdict Passed Upon the New Packard Piano

By Thousands Who Visited the New Warerooms Last Saturday Afternoon and Evening—Strictly a Home Product.

It is with a good deal of pride and satisfaction that the builders of the new Packard pianos and organs viewed the crowds who visited their new warerooms in the Schmitz block last Saturday afternoon and evening; and this feeling must be intensified by the universal verdict of the throngs who not only saw but also heard the beautiful instruments on exhibition.

The public, too, should have a feeling of gratification in the matter. The Packard Piano is a home product, being manufactured by the Fort Wayne Organ company, whose organs are to now be found in every civilized country on the globe. Their new departure in the manufacture of pianos will no doubt prove a highly successful venture.

It seems now as if their greatest aspirations regarding the manufacture of an upright piano which for excellence of tone—one having resonance, power and sweetness—a quick repeating action and well balanced scale all clothed in a case of artistic design and finish, are to be realized. Next to an even scale, probably the strongest point par excellence in the Packard piano is the claim of the company for great durability of make. Pianos that quickly wear out, in which the tone becomes "tin-panny," the action loose or the other extreme, heavy and sticky, while the case cracks and splits are not unknown, perhaps not uncommon. The greatest care is taken in the building of these pianos. One is never completed in less than six months, while only well seasoned, kiln-dried, specially selected lumber is used.

There were four styles of cases in different wood and two of different scale shown in the exhibit. The cases are elegant with not so much of ornamentation that they were displeasing. The woods used are walnut, bird's-eye maple, Hungarian oak and mahogany. A piano with case of bird's-eye maple stands in the window and attracts much attention with the beauty of its workmanship. There were nine styles of organs, a special size suitable for use in churches, being particularly noticeable. A self-playing piano also attracted marked attention, being the first time one has been seen in this city. A paper roll is used by an ingenious arrangement to produce different selections, on the same principle as the management of the orchestrion at Robison park. This piano was also manufactured in this city. Messrs. Glenn Mills and William Spiegel are in charge of the large pleasant rooms and are courteous gentlemen, whose pleasure is to exhibit the instruments of which the citizens have reason to be as proud as the manufacturers.

Miss Tillie Lindemann assisted during the afternoon and evening in demonstrating the tone of the pianos.

Handsome souvenirs of lithograph calendars with embossed covers were presented to the ladies who called to see the exhibit.

WILL BE ENJOYABLE.

Social and Entertainment by the L. A. of the O. R. C.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the O. R. C. will give a social and entertainment at Schroeder's hall Thursday evening, Nov. 19. Following is the program:

Music	K. O. T. M. Band
Recitation	Florence MacMellan

	Edna Bauers and Gracie Vreeland
Vocal solo	Wayne Trust Quartet
Recitation	Mabel Williams
Song	Reese and Owen Strait

Refreshments will be served, after which a short dance program will be given.

The cycling season is about over and the local dealers and manufacturers are all busy considering plans for 1897. The outlook is very promising. All of the local manufacturers have turned out their '97 models and are now experimenting with them. The new wheels show no radical departure, but appear to be improvements on those of 1896.

Charles C. D. Huestis has sold to Iva Weaver house and lot 50, Old Orchard addition.

WHO'LL GET THE PLUM.

Fairbanks Seems to Have the Inside Track.

Harrison May Enter the Race—McKeen Will Throw Support to a Compromise Candidate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 16—The fact that the republicans will control the legislature on joint ballot and will elect a United States senator to succeed Daniel W. Voorhees has caused interest to center in the republican nomination for that office in a peculiar degree.

Charles W. Fairbanks, the millionaire railroad solicitor, has been an avowed candidate for the senate for the last six years and has been the recognized favorite of Chairman Gowdy and of the party managers generally. He has been conspicuous in Indiana campaigns, contributing liberally of his substance and doing yeoman service on the stump. When the victory of 1894 gave reasonable assurances of controlling the legislature in 1896 another Richmond in the person of Riley W. McKeen, president of the Vandalia Railroad company, appeared in the field, and, with the opening of the campaign in March last he established headquarters in this city and began a systematic campaign for the nomination.

But it is conceded that McKeen is practically out of the race and will throw his support to a compromise candidate, and those who represent the conservative element believe that there are two other elements from which they could draw for a compromise man—from those who are pledged to Fairbanks as against McKeen only, and those who are unpledged and prepared to do what is best for the party as a whole.

Fairbanks' supporters claim he has enough votes already pledged to nominate him and that it will be impossible for the opposition to concentrate on any man who could make an inroad upon his strength. His friends, however, are leaving nothing to chance, but are working like Trojans to secure additions to his strength in the caucus.

It is even intimated by some of Fairbanks' friends that their favorite would be willing to wait another two years and would step aside for Harrison to enter the senate, but this is regarded as a statement that should be received with some grains of allowance, for others assert that if the ex-president is the next senator he must fight for it.

So far as known, Mr. Harrison has given no intimation of his wishes and no one has yet consented to speak for him. The ex-president is decidedly friendly to McKeen and the latter to him, and there is no question but the strength of the one in the caucus would be the strength of the other with the addition that Harrison's popularity with the people would make to it.

The situation is full of interest to the people of Indiana and this has been heightened recently by the declarations of several senators and representatives-elect that they are neither for Fairbanks nor McKeen, but for Harrison.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

The Blind Can See by the Use of X Rays.

A Boy Who Has Been Blind Fourteen Years Sees Plainly Through the Fluoroscope.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—Lucien Bacilgalupi, a totally blind boy, says he can see objects by the use of the cathode ray. Such is the statement made by Dr. Waverly Clark, a physician. Young Bacilgalupi's father conducts a photograph and kinetoscope establishment here and among the attractions of the place is an X ray apparatus. The boy, in company with Dr. Clark, visited his father's place, and in fun was asked to go into the X ray room and ascertain if he could see anything. The boy has been totally blind for fourteen years, but as soon as he put the fluoroscope to his eyes, he exclaimed that he could see. He was able to distinguish different objects, but without the use of the X rays was as blind as ever. Dr. Clark, in speaking of the matter, said that there was probably a film over the boy's eyes which was impenetrable by ordinary lights, but which was pierced by the powerful rays.

ALL QUIET AT CANTON.

Mr. McKinley Attends Church and Takes a Drive.

CANTON, O., Nov. 16—With an ideal autumnal day as an inspiration for a drive President-elect McKinley yesterday afternoon enjoyed a ride in the family carriage, accompanied by Webb C. Hayes, who was a guest at the McKinley home today.

Mr. Hayes accompanied Major McKinley to the First Methodist church, the son of the former presiding and the president elect walking to and from the place of worship. Major McKinley sat in the pew with his aged mother and his sister, whom he saw in their carriages after the services.

In addition to receiving other callers and entertaining Mr. Hayes, who is a friend of the family of many years' standing, Major McKinley did not forget to call at his mother's home, and he also spent as much time as he could with his wife, whose health has improved considerably during the last few days.

One Bryan Elector in Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 16—Complete official returns have been tabulated by counties showing that Smith, one of the Bryan electors, runs 2,000 ahead of the lowest McKinley elector and is elected. The other twelve Bryan electors run from 300 to 700 behind twelve of the McKinley electors. The total vote of the state was 444,243, as follows: McKinley, 218,065; Bryan, 217,797; Palmer, 5,018; Levering, 3,374. McKinley's average plurality, 258 on the vote for electors.

A FIERCE BATTLE.

Spaniards and Cubans Now Engaged in a Conflict.

The Stronghold of the Insurgents Has Been Attacked and the Engagement Decides the Fate of the Cause.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla, Nov. 16.—Cipher dispatches just received report a fierce battle in progress in Pinar del Rio. "It is believed Maceo and Weyler have met. The reports of fire arms have been almost incessantly heard for several hours." No details of the engagement are given other than the statement that a most decisive engagement is being waged. The last definite news of Captain General Weyler located him at Olasya, within a few miles of Maceo's intrenchments, where the battle is raging. The dispatch adds: "Insurgent forces are well located in the hills and are pouring a hot fire into the Spanish troops, which have repeatedly been driven back in attempts to capture the Cuban stronghold. The insurgents have the advantage of position, being at a great elevation, but the Spaniards are making a most desperate attack. From a distance it looks as if several towns are in flames. The sky is lighted up by the constant fire of the artillery. Whether or not Maceo, himself, is directing the insurgent's tactics cannot at this time be learned."

THE OLD COURT HOUSE.

The County Commissioners Discuss It.

Alterations Being Made to the New Quarters—News of the Day in the Courts.

The county commissioners this afternoon made an official visit to the Saengerbund building and ordered certain alterations in preparation for its occupancy for court house purposes.

The board is considering the best means of procedure in tearing down the old court house. They have not settled whether they will sell it as it stands, or let the contract for tearing it down. There is a bare possibility that they may hire the workmen themselves. The old court house cost $90,000 and it contains a good deal of material which it is thought can be used in the new building.

The work of tearing down will begin immediately after the building is vacated, which will be as soon as the fall settlement is made by the auditor and treasurer, the latter part of December.

COURT NEWS

SENATOR VOORHEES

Said to Be Slowly Dying From Paresis.

As Helpless as a Child and Totally Unable to Do Anything for Himself.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 16—Immediately following the election, friends of Senator Voorhees began an inquiry into his condition, with a view to learning whether or not to make a fight for the complimentary nomination of the democratic caucus. It is now announced by them that no effort will be made in his behalf.

The reason assigned is that the senator is beyond all hopes of recovery and that even were the empty honor bestowed on him his mental condition is such that he would not even understand its import. He is suffering from paresis, and has reached a stage where he is utterly unconscious of what is going on around him. The senator's friends here were advised several months ago that he was failing in health and that it was not likely that he would take any part in the campaign, but he was supposed to be suffering from rheumatism and the hope was indulged in that he would soon be well.

Two months ago he was taken to Terre Haute, where he has been staying ever since, and his friends have at last learned the truth regarding his condition. When he arrived at Terre Haute he was in a pitiable mental condition and has since grown steadily worse. He has a room at the Terre Haute house and has not been seen outside of it since he reached that city, some two months ago. He is under the charge of a nurse who cares for him constantly, and his meals are served in the rooms, where no one is permitted to see him.

A friend of the senator who visited Terre Haute Friday says that he is as helpless as a child, being totally unable to do anything for himself, and that he is slowly breathing out his life. His physical health is good, but he has aged greatly within the past four months and his death is but a question of a few weeks.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 16.—A special to the News from Terre Haute, Ind., says: "United States Senator Voorhees is circulating among his old friends here daily, and gives promise of a speedy restoration to his old time vigor. He expects to return to Washington within the next two weeks."

TALKED FROM PULPITS.

Christian Temperance Workers Given a Hearing.

Eighty Pastors of Eighty Churches Invite the Visiting Lecturers to Address Their Congregations.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 16—Yesterday women preached in eighty pulpits in St. Louis. Congregational, Methodist Episcopal, Baptist, Christian, Presbyterian and Evangelical churches all opened their doors to lecturing members of the Women's Christian Temperance union. Many were lost for a while in contemplation of the strangeness of the event, but the feeling of novelty soon wore off and the sermons became fully as effective, if not more so than those of the regular pastors. Forty years since, when Mrs. Antoinette Blackburn-Brown, of Orange, N. J., startled the ecclesiastical world by becoming ordained as a minister, the presence of nearly 100 women in as many pulpits in one city would have been impossible.

MR. BRYAN TO GO HUNTING.

The Ex-Candidate and Other Democrats Will Shoot in Missouri.

ATCHISON, Kas., Nov. 16.—W. J. Bryan will leave his home in Lincoln, Neb., this evening, on his way to Missouri to hunt with Governor Stone, Chairman Jones, Congressman-elect Bland and others. J. W. Orr, of Atchison, who was in Lincoln Saturday and called on Mr. Bryan, says Mr. Bryan is receiving a thousand letters a day and that one of them offered him $50,000 for thirty lectures. Mr. Bryan showed his collection of curiosities sent him during the campaign. Among them are four live eagles, which eat $2 worth of fresh meat every day.

"Dr. Elmer's" Wife Remains in the City

While the Doctor Does a Fake Hypnotist Role in Indiana Towns.

A special from Anderson to the Indianapolis Sentinel says that "Dr. Elmer, a fake hypnotist, whose headquarters are at Fort Wayne and who has been working Indiana, was placed under arrest at his hotel in this city at 4 o'clock this morning before he had time to skip the town, after being exposed by three Indianapolis girls, who went under assumed names and were his subjects. Their right names were Charlotte Pogue, Alice Elliott and Adelia Wagoner. The latter lives on West Washington street. Miss Elliott, aged eleven years, lives at 319 West Market street, and Miss Pogue had charge of a display in the food exhibit. They were the subjects upon whom he practiced his fake hypnotic powers. Miss Pogue did the "three day dead act." His treatment of them was inhuman and he wound up by trying to beat them out of their wages.

He skipped town today after being compelled to settle all bills in full under direction of the police. He had a woman with him who posed as his wife. He left her behind and she lives at Fort Wayne."

SALOON MEN UP.

Affidavits Filed Against Three Prominent Liquor Men.

A Harvest of Train Jumpers Gathered by Pennsylvania Officers—News in Police Circles.

Affidavits have been filed against Daniel Hutzell, James Goodfellow and Henry A. Wiebke, three well known saloon keepers. Hutzell, who runs a place on West Main street, was charged with Sunday desecration, having sold liquor at his place on Sunday. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $10.50. Officer Pageler made the arrest.

James Goodfellow and Harry Wiebke conduct adjoining places on Calhoun street. They are charged by Officer Greer with violation of the Nicholson law by not taking their screens down on Sunday. Their cases were set for this afternoon.

MORE TRAIN JUMPERS.

Lieutenant Stoll and Officer Fuchshuber, of the Pennsylvania company, made four arrests on Sunday, the offenders being caught in the act of riding on trains. They gave their names as Ned Shark, Arthur Bell, Patrick F. Kelly and John Buecker. The two former were boys. Shark had in his possession a silver watch of Standard make, with the number 2,294,683 stamped on the lid. When asked where he got it the answer was, "Found it along the railroad track." Bell had numerous articles in his pocket, including a revolver, all of which he said he had "found or given to him." The officers think that some of the property was stolen.

Mayor Scherer sent the four prisoners to jail for fifteen days apiece.

SOME THEFTS.

The room of George Walda, at 72 East Main street, was entered last night and a number of articles, including a razor and hair brush, are missing.

A horse blanket was stolen from the buggy of A. J. Brase, of Jefferson and Griffith streets.

A black overcoat was stolen from M. W. Fay, at the Wayne hotel, last Saturday night.

The Fort Wayne Gas company has been laying extensions on Runion avenue, and in compliance with the city ordinance they hang out lanterns along the trenches at night to prevent accidents. Somebody walked away with several of these lanterns Saturday night and the officers have been furnished with the names of the supposed thieves. The company will not prosecute if the lanterns are returned.

NOTES.

Thomas Boling, a watchman for the Pennsylvania company, at the Broadway crossing was taken ill at his post of duty last night and was conveyed in the city ambulance, to his home, 363 West Main street.

DIED IN OLD AGE.

Abraham DeHart Passes Away in His Eighty-Seventh Year.

He Helped to Build the Cathedral—Other Deaths and Funerals.

Abraham DeHart, of 36 Wall street, died at an early hour this morning. Death was due to the infirmities of old age, he having attained his eighty-seventh year. A widow and several children survive him. Deceased was actively identified with the building of the Cathedral and he had the honor of mixing all the mortar that was used in that building from the foundation to the roof.

Edward Albert, son of John E. Joseph and wife, of the Ellison farm, died of spasms, aged three days. The funeral took place this morning at Prairie Grove.

Louise Schmidt, aged seventeen years, died last night at the Indiana School for Feeble Minded Youth. The deceased came from Dearborn county.

The large attendance at the funeral of unfortunate Fred Bulmahn Sunday afternoon, attested the popularity of the deceased and the esteem in which he was held. Services were conducted by Rev. C. Gross at the house and the church, there being two sermons, one English and one German.

John Anderson, an old resident of Milan township, who some years ago went south, died Saturday at Cleveland, Tenn. The remains will probably be interred at that place.

O. W. Olds, an operator for the Pennsylvania company at Nevada, Ohio, died Thursday and was buried Saturday. He was well known here among trainmen.

The funeral of the late George Phillips took place this afternoon from the church, in St. Joe township.

School Children's Eyes Afflicted.

GOSHEN, Ind., Nov. 16.—Fifteen pupils of the Fifth street school were sent to their homes on the advice of Dr. J. A. Cook, secretary of the city board of health, because of an affliction of the eyes known to the medical profession as catarrhal conjunctivitis, which causes the eye to become inflamed and bloodshot, resulting later in severe swelling and the emission of pus. The disease is infectious, and if not checked was liable to become epidemic in the school.

"CUTE'S" CUTENESS.

Dog's Sagacity Saves the Aldine Block From Ruins.

Discovers a Fire and Arouses Slumbering Inmates—The Chapter of Accidents.

Henry Pantland, of Schone & Veith's undertaking establishment, owns a dog which is now the hero of the hour. "Cute," as he is called, is bow-legged and bob-tailed, but he is a King Charles spaniel with royal blue blood in his veins for all of that; and he has the sense of canine intelligence.

In Schone & Veith's is where "Cute" makes his home. This establishment is in the Aldine block two doors from the Aldine restaurant, which is conducted by Crisley & Allen. At 3:30 o'clock this morning Mr. Schone, who sleeps in the shop, was aroused from his slumbers by a tugging at his bed clothes. He arose and followed the dog to a rear door, where he was startled to find a lurid glare reflected against the McDonald building adjoining.

An investigation showed the kitchen of the Aldine restaurant was afire and the flames were rapidly gaining headway. Mr. Schone sent in a telephone alarm to the central station and the department promptly responded. It was the work of half an hour to extinguish the blaze, but it was not accomplished until about $250 worth of damage had been done to the interior.

The origin of the fire was traced to an overheated range which set fire to the floor, thus communicating to the other wood work. Had the flames been unimpeded a little while longer, it is likely that the Aldine block would have been a smoldering mass of ruins at dawn this morning.

The building is owned by D. N. Foster, who is reimbursed for his loss by ample insurance.

ACCIDENTS.

The team hitched to No. 3 hose cart, while making a run to the fire this morning, fell in front of the City hall. The high speed at which the animals were going at the time caused them to slide about fifteen feet, severely lacerating their legs.

Yesterday, a party of young gentlemen, consisting of Fred Bischoff, Harry Ebeeline, Otto Stahl and Robert Meyer, went driving into the country. When near Googlein one of the horses fell in the harness and had to be left by the roadside while the boys came back to the city to procure a doctor.

Walter Daugherty, of 227 Wells street, while out hunting yesterday was shot through the big toe of his left foot by the accidental discharge of a gun.

Ladies Who Value

A refined complexion must use Pozzoni's Powder. It produces a soft and beautiful skin.

The Evening Sentinel.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

MONDAY, NOV. 16, 1896.

It looks now almost certain that John Wanamaker will receive the election of United States senator from Pennsylvania when the legislature meets.

The latest agitation in English society throughout her majesty's empire has been caused by the truth that dancing is going out of fashion, says the Boston Herald. It may be said that the terpsichorean art is dying a natural death, and in a few years it will be a thing of the past. Women's clubs and the search for knowledge and the things that uplift the mind to a higher scale is taking its place.

The Salvation Army, which has already earned the respect and gratitude of the public by its various benefactions, has undertaken the cultivation of another broad field of philanthropy. Its latest enterprise is as novel as it promises to be useful, and if the experiment proves successful it will no doubt be as prolific of good as the most sanguine of its projectors could hope for. The scheme is to provide homes and employment for persons who, having served terms in prison, are released upon the expiration of their sentences or by pardon. Through the generosity of George O. Montgomery, they have secured a farm of 300 acres, near San Francisco, upon which they propose to make their first experiment. Farming and various mechanical trades will be taught, and so long as no other employment can be found released convicts will be allowed to remain in the colony, a portion of the product of their labor going toward their maintenance and the balance to the individual for use when he has worked out his salvation by rebuilding his good name. The institution will be open to all sorts of convicts. The army will direct its energies to reclaiming those who are impenitent, and assist all to better lives and more lucrative employment.

The United States this week has sent out cargoes of wheat consigned to India, Australia and South Africa, in addition to the usual shipments to the West Indies and to practically all the nations of Eastern Europe. Ordinarily South Africa gets its wheat from Australia or from India, but this year those two countries have become importers instead of exporters of wheat, and America is the source to which they are looking for supplies. The picture of the United States forwarding great ship loads of grain to a dozen different nations is one which cannot fail to inspire in loyal Americans a feeling of great pride in the marvelous resources of their country, and it is certain, too, to give to all the people of this country a feeling of supreme confidence that the end of the period of depression in agriculture is approaching, and the time is close at hand when the business of the American farmers will be restored to a profitable and prosperous basis.

Work Advised for the Future.

Under the auspices of the Lincoln Bimetallic club, Mr. Bryan delivered at Lincoln Saturday evening his first formal address since the election, sounding what is generally accepted as the keynote of himself and his followers in the campaign which is to continue for the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver. The meeting was held at the Funk Opera house, which was crowded.

Mr. Bryan was in fairly good voice and was enthusiastically applauded. After referring in a congratulatory way to the result in Nebraska, he proceeded with that part of his address around which centered the most interest, saying: "Well, now, I want to say a word for the future. We have passed through this campaign and we have been defeated, and I want you to remember this, that there is not in this land a single advocate of free coinage who is not willing to abide by the decision of the American people without complaint. You do not find among the silver men those who say, as a distinguished republican in New York said, 'We may not abide by the result.' I am proud that in our ranks we had men who so loved this form of government that no matter what the people say they rule and we bow to their supremacy.

"Now I want you to take up every question that concerns your national government, every question which concerns your state government, every question which concerns your city government and make it a subject of study and let it be known that the people who banded themselves together to secure the restoration of the money of the constitution are not only going to secure that, but they are going to be an active, effective, telling force in making government good from the highest government in the land down to the lowest in your city or ward. We can build up a fighting force, my friends, which will be invincible. If we can convince the people that we are in earnest, that we are not seeking to control legislation in order to secure some personal advantage at the expense of others, and that in our comprehension of the needs of the people we take into consideration all the people, seeking to secure just, wise legislation, I want to say to you, my friends, that we will lay the foundation for enduring success."

SIXTH GRAND COUNCIL.

Annual Gathering of the American Sons of Columbus.

Elaborate Preparation for the Entertainment of Guests—Business and Social Program.

There exists in this city a society of Catholics known as the Sons of Columbus. The organization was conceived seven years ago by Hon. P. S. O'Rourke. The first colony was started here and the order has flourished so successfully that its branches now reach over the states of Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and New Jersey. The organization is partly benevolent and partly social. It is a secret order which includes points similar to the Odd Fellows (or the Knights of Pythias. Unlike many other Catholic societies, it has no spiritual director, although its aims and purposes fully meet the approval of the Catholic clergy.

The sixth annual meeting of the Grand Council of the order will convene in this city tomorrow at the Sons of Columbus hall, in the Lau block.

First meeting will convene at 10 a. m., when the various committees for convention work will be appointed. There will be an adjournment and the balance of the day will be devoted to committee work.

At 8:15 p. m. a musical and literary entertainment will be given in honor of the visiting delegates and members, and the following program will be rendered:

At the conclusion of this program a ball and banquet will be held.

Wednesday will be taken up entirely with business sessions at which the committees will report and the lodge matters will be discussed.

In the evening the initiation ceremonies will be given under the new ritual of the order. The exemplification of this work will be the first to be seen, and it is said to be beautiful and impressive.

The meeting will close Wednesday night with the initiatory ceremonies. The executive committee in charge of the affair is as follows:

Dr. E. J. McOscar, F. O. Ebinger, F. X. Schuler, Robert Reilly, Henry Beadell, F. G. Monahan, G. B. Grimme, E. J. O'Connell, Ed Schele, H. A. Zurbuch, T. J. Foley.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

State Meeting to be Held at Muncie This Month.

Miss Jennie T. Mason, secretary of the Indiana Union, has made an announcement of the arrangements for the state meeting at Muncie, November 26 to 29. The number of Endeavorers in Indiana, she says, is between 75,000 and 70,000. The union includes senior societies, young people's societies, intermediate societies, mothers' societies and junior societies of Christian Endeavor. In order that mothers may attend, there will be a room near the convention hall, in charge of a trained nurse, where little ones may be left during convention sessions. This room will be fitted up with "jumpers," hammocks, cribs, toys, etc., for the comfort of children. It will also contain a telephone, and a physician will be there. The state is divided into twenty Christian Endeavor districts. Each district will have headquarters near convention halls, decorated in district colors and district flags. In addition to the convention sessions, evangelistic meetings will be held in the stores, shops, factories and in the various suburbs of the city. Among the speakers of the convention are the Rev. B. Fay Mills, Fort Edward, N. Y.; Prof. Graham Taylor, Chicago University, Chicago, Ill.; the Rev. J. F. Cowan, Pittsburg, Pa.; the Rev. L. S. Keyser, Dayton, Ohio; the Rev. F. W. McCauley, Toledo, Ohio; Dr. J. C. Caldwell, Shelbyville, Ind.; the Rev. J. E. Pounds, Indianapolis; Mrs. F. F. McCrea, Indianapolis.

Ben Hur lodge No. 15 will have a fine program at the close of its order of business tonight, as follows: Short address, Norton Conover; piano solo, Mrs. Anna Lepper; recitation, Mrs. Dr. Heaton; vocal solo, W. D. Williams; recitation, Geo. S. Hall.

There will be no diphtheria, scarlet fever, nor worms for children, says a prominent physician, if they eat plentifully of onions every day, especially when there is a scarcity of fresh fruit. The juice of the pine apple will cut the membrane from the throat in diphtheria when nothing else will, says the Scientific American.

Professor Hicks' prognostications for November have been correct so far, and it remains to be seen if the weather for the remainder of the month will be as he foretold it. The 16th to the 18th will be a regular storm period. Cold will follow. From about the 21st to 23d look for reactionary storms, followed later by changes that naturally follow at this season. According to his predictions Thanksgiving will be anything but a pleasant day. The month, he says, will close with very cold weather. Prepare for a hard December.

The opening of the quail season last week took to the country almost every Fort Wayne sportsman who could muster up a gun and dog of his own or could manage to borrow these necessary adjuncts of successful quail hunting. A good many went out for a day, returning the same evening, while others went out for a two or three days' hunt and not a few took their departure with the intention of remaining in the quail fields for weeks and perhaps a month if the sport proved as good as anticipated. The comparatively few who have returned report that quail are more plentiful than they have been for years and most of them succeeded in bagging a goodly number of birds.

The exhibition given under the auspices of the Society of Art came to a close last Saturday evening. The cultured people have never had a more artistic collection of art to look upon than this one and the society is to be commended for its enterprise. Mr. Warner, whose collection it was, paid a high compliment to Fort Wayne, when in conversation with a lady, he said that "in no city in the west, not even in Chicago, had he met with any higher cultured people in art education than in this city." Mr. Warner resided in Washington, D. C., many years and has been associated with what is best in art and knows whereof he speaks. A number of choice water colors and etchings have been sold in the city, and we will welcome other exhibitions if they are as fine as this one.

Warden Charles Harley has filed a report of the northern prison, in which is shown that the number of prisoners on November 1, 1895, was 908, and on the same date, 1896, 851. The number received during the first year was 441, and the second year 427. The number that were discharged during the first year was 423, and during the second year 394. The governor pardoned or paroled 40 during the first year and 23 during the second. The report of Chaplain Currie related to his services and mentions the prison choir, prison church, prison Christian Endeavor, prison school and the prison library. He baptized 114 men; 223 belonged to the church; 53 were discharged by letter and 3 died. The Christian Endeavor had 352 members.

The Warsaw Times has this to say of a Fort Wayne drummer: "Abe Minsky, a traveling salesman for a wholesale grocery house, who visits the trade in Warsaw regularly every week has won several bets on the result of the late election at different stations on his route. Among the wagers he laid was one with a young lady of Warsaw, whose name he could not be induced to divulge. Abe is an ardent republican and the young Warsaw damsel thought it absolutely out of the question for Shively to be defeated for the governorship of Indiana and straightway wagered five kisses—the genuine article—against a five pound box of Gunther's candy. Minsky won by a great, big, healthy margin and will, perhaps, come along next week and claim his property."

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McDonald arranged a neighborhood surprise party en masque, in honor of their daughter Esther's thirteenth birthday anniversary. After the young guests had arrived and surprised their young hostess, Miss Esther in turn masked and mingled with the others. Miss Brenda Fisher played appropriate selections on the piano. At 9 o'clock they removed their masks and a dainty supper was served. The guests and characters assumed are as follows: Esther McDonald, Old Fashioned Girl; Bertha Yarnelle, Flower Girl; Margie Olds, Quaker; Edith Hughes, Quaker Girl; Delia Rossell, Flower Girl; Laura Fee, Marguerite; Martha Hackett, Japanese; Florence Griebel, Gypsy; Louise Potter, Ghost; Jessie Reitze, Ghost; Clara Hull, Woodland Nymph; Carlie Stapleford, Norman Lass; Leonora Moderwell, Jockey Girl; Ben Bell, Old Grandmother; Charley Hughes, Baby; Norman Olds, Dude Cholly; Charlie Hanna, Louis XIV; Carl Delther, Clown; Carl Woodworth, Sunflower; Guy Olmstead, Li Hung Chang; Ray Barrows, Flower Girl; Jay Read, Dude Cholly; Frank Beaver, Ghost. The characters were all good, Li Hung Chang and the Dudes Cholly especially so.

Tourists who contemplate visiting California during the season 1896-7 will be glad to know that the sumptuous Sunset Limited service of the Southern Pacific will be resumed November. This magnificent train, which is conceded to be the finest and most complete operated upon any transcontinental line, will have several new and attractive features this season. It will leave New Orleans each Monday and Thursday morning, running during the season. Rate of fare same as on the regular trains, Pullman fare added. If you are contemplating a trip to the Pacific Coast, write to W. G. Neimyer, General Western Southern Pacific Railroad Passenger Agent, 238 Clark street, Chicago, or S. F. B. Morse, General Passenger Agent Southern Pacific Railroad, New Orleans, La., for further particulars about Sunset Limited.

The revival campaign at the St. Paul M. E. church took on large proportions yesterday. The attendance at the morning service was unusually large, and resulted in one accession to the church and a large number of renewals and conversions. Rev. M. C. Cooper preached an impressive sermon on "The Baptism of the Holy Spirit," and Evangelist Saylor's singing moved the audience to great religious enthusiasm. At 7:30 o'clock in the evening one of the largest congregations in the history of the church was present, and so impressive was the service under the direction of the pastor and Evangelist Saylor, that when the invitation was given, fully seventy-five people pressed their way to the altar of prayer. When the evangelist sang the solo, "My Angel Mother," the entire audience was moved to tears, and there were many requests for prayers. The meetings will continue each evening this week, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

A SOCIETY WOMAN.

MAY BE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERATION.

Mrs. Alice Ives Breed of Lynn, Mass., Is Among the Prominent Candidates for the Honor—Has Two Daughters Also Conspicuous in Society.

MRS. Alice Ives Breed of Lynn, Mass., is the woman most talked of for the next president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Breed is a woman of fashion. She is also a great traveler, a systematic worker in her intellectual and club life, and, above all, is a devoted mother and homemaker. Mrs. Breed has hosts of admirers in Chicago, gained during her visits to Mrs. H. O. Stone, whom she has known for many years. Her house on the rock bound coast of Massachusetts is rich in evidences of wealth and culture. There the most distinguished men and women in the world of art, music and literature may be met, drawn as they are to the beautiful place by the intelligent sympathy of the gracious hostess. Personally Mrs. Breed is most attractive, combining in her manner the graceful charm of the well bred woman with a simplicity and sincerity and render her wonderfully engaging. Besides discharging the social duties that fall to her lot Mrs. Breed superintends the education of her five children. Two of them, Miss Alice Breed and Miss Florence Breed, are just out in society, and passed a couple of months of last winter in Chicago, where they were the guests of Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Fernando Jones. Mrs. Breed has also given much time to philanthropic and reform work, being the president of several large charitable societies in Boston and Lynn. Since the organization of the General Federation she has been prominently connected with its plans, her general experience in club work making her a valuable counselor in its deliberations. It is this wide experience, together with her unusual executive ability and delightful personality, that has marked her as the strongest candidate for the highest position in the gift of the great Federation of Women's Clubs.

American Camels.

The Phoenix (Arizona) Gazette says: "About thirty years ago a number of camels, nearly 150, were brought to Arizona, having been purchased by the United States government for the purpose of carrying supplies to the regular troops stationed in the territory. After a thorough trial they were found to be useless, as the gravelly sands of the deserts cut their feet, making them unfit for travel. The entire lot was offered for sale, and some were purchased, but the larger number were turned loose to graze and roam where they pleased. For awhile they seemed to dwindle in number, but of late years they have multiplied rapidly, and today probably 1,000 of these animals roam over the desert. A miner recently counted 218 in one herd on the Gila river, near the White mountains, and it is known that some graze in the Bradshaws, while a few roam over the hills in Mojave county."

Danger to Pearls.

It is pretty generally understood by women who have achieved choice pearl rings that while clear, pure water does not injure the gem, soap and water will soon affect their luster and color, and in time will cause them to peel, or shed an outer coat. This crumbling, however, takes place even when the gems are most carefully treated, and when the tendency is noted the ring or brooch or necklace should be promptly taken to a jeweler. The course of treatment often prescribed by that authority is that of the rest cure. Put it aside in its box, carefully closed from light and air, and a few weeks, or possibly a month or two, of this lying fallow will often entirely restore the original beauty and health of the gem.

Why He Was Annoyed.

"Sometimes," remarked Methuselah to his favorite great-great-great-great-great-grandchild; "sometimes I wish I had died young; say, in my sixth or seventh century."

"Why, grandpop?"

"Well, it is peculiarly annoying to me to hear my ninety-fourth wife say, as she does every day or two: 'You are certainly old enough to know better.'"

How to Mend China.

Take a very thick solution of gum arabic and water and stir into it plaster of paris until the mixture becomes a viscous paste. Apply it with a brush to the fractured edges and stick them together. In three days the article cannot be broken at the same place. The whiteness of this cement renders it doubly valuable.

How to Make Sweet Tomato Pickle.

A peck of green tomatoes, 10 small onions, whole spices, pepper, bay leaves, 1 tablespoonfuls of sugar, vinegar and salt. Peel tomatoes like an apple, leaving them whole, and sprinkle with two-thirds of a cupful of salt. After standing 6 hours hang them in a bag to drain all night. Break up cinnamon and cloves and put into a thin muslin bag. Peel and chop the onions, sprinkling them with salt. When tomatoes and onions are well drained, pack in layers in a jar, putting bits of bay leaf and small peppers on each layer. Cover with good vinegar, put in the spice bag and let stand 9 days, having them well covered and pressed down by a cloth, plate and weight. When the time has passed, boil the mixture as it is, adding the sugar. Seal in glass jars after laying horse radish slices and black mustard seed on top of the pickle.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Keep A— JUMPIN'

THE storekeeper, politician, salesman, mechanic or laboring man who expects to do much business or make both ends meet this year, must practice the lesson in the above illustration: Two bullfrogs found themselves in a pail of milk from which they could not jump out. One of them was for giving up, and said to the other: "Good bye, I sink, I die." Said his mate: "Brace up you duffer." Keep a jumping and see what turns up. So they kept a jumping up and down all night, and by morning had so churned the milk that it turned to butter, and they jumped off the butter on to land. This is no milk and water tale as you see by the results—the butter. If you want to make both ends meet, "Keep a JUMPING." Don't cry "I sink, I die." You who keeps looking for bad times and a snap will not live long enough to get a snap or see good times. The man who keeps a jumping and buys his FURNITURE, Carpets, Stoves and Dishes of the

INDIANA FURNITURE CO.,

Cash or Time, is the man who sees good times first.

WE WANT MONEY!

This is neither a catch phrase, or a scheme to deceive the people. All business houses have found this year to be a hard one, and we having an especially large sum to raise, have been compelled much against our will to

SACRIFICE OUR STOCK---TO CUT OUR PRICES DOWN,

For we do not like to sell goods below cost, nor would we do so if we were not absolutely compelled to do so.

Fort Wayne Journal November 8th, 1895, says: "The dissolution of one of the first and most enterprising clothing houses of this city is in progress. Mr. Harry Friend retires from the firm of Friend's Enterprise, but the firm will not lose its identity or the confidence and prestige it enjoys throughout Northern Indiana and Western Ohio. The dissolution is a friendly one, for Mr. Friend retires to engage in the jobbing business at Chicago, and that metropolis wins one of the brightest and most progressive young business men in the West."

It is to satisfy the claim that Mr. Friend holds against us we are compelled to make this sale. The large sum of $10,000 MUST BE RAISED BEFORE JAN. 1st.

FORTY-TWO YEARS AGO.

An Old Railway Event Recalled to Memory.

The Celebration in Fort Wayne of the Completion of the Ohio and Indiana Road—Local Gossip.

Yesterday was the forty-second anniversary of the grand celebration in this city of the completion of the Ohio and Indiana railroad, which extended from Crestline to Fort Wayne, and which is now a part of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad. The celebration had been advertised far and near and it drew to the city one of the greatest crowds assembled here up to that date. The hotels were able to take care of only a small portion of the crowd and the private residences were thrown open to the visitors to the extent that only a very few families were without guests. There are a few people now living in this city who were here on that day and who retain vivid recollections of the celebration and its stirring scenes. Among them is Tony Kelker, the well known engineer, who was then a conductor and had charge of the construction train that carried all the rails for the track between Delphos and Fort Wayne. The celebration was made the occasion for an excursion from Crestline and intermediate points to Fort Wayne and the number of excursionists was limited by invitation from Samuel Hanna, the president of the road, of which the following is a copy:

OFFICE OF THE OHIO AND INDIANA R. R. Co.,
BUCYRUS, November 4, 1854.

To C. Ross, Esq.

SIR:—The directors of the Ohio and Indiana Railroad company invite you to attend an excursion to Fort Wayne, Ind., on Wednesday, the 15th inst., on the occasion of the completion of the road.

SAMUEL HANNA,
President.

"Guests from Pittsburg, Cleveland and points east of there can arrive at Crestline at 11 p. m., (and at 12 p. m. at Bucyrus) Tuesday, where they can lodge; or, by the morning train on Wednesday, they can arrive at Crestline at 11 a. m., and take the mail train, which arrives at Fort Wayne at 8 p. m.

"The excursion train will leave Crestline at 8 a. m. on Wednesday, the 15th inst., and be run per the annexed schedule.

"Guests by the Mad River and Lake Erie railroad, who leave Dayton and Sandusky City by the morning mail train will arrive at Forest in time for the excursion train. Those wishing to take the express train on Mad River and Lake Erie railroad can reach Forest in time for the mail train which arrives at Fort Wayne at 8 p. m.

"Tickets of invitation will serve as 'Free Passes' on any train on the Ohio and Indiana railroad during the 15th and 16th inst; but must be shown to the brakemen at the door of the car.

"An excursion party in mail train from Fort Wayne will meet the excursion train at Lima, where a collation for all the guests will be set in the station house, and will return to Fort Wayne by the excursion train.

"Provision is made at Fort Wayne to accommodate guests at private houses, and a committee in the cars will distribute tickets of invitation to each, with the name of the person whose guest he is to become.

"The return trip arrives at Forest and Crestline in time to connect with trains of other roads at these points, without much delay.

"J. R. STRAUGHAN,
"Superintendent.

"Fort Wayne, Nov. 4, 1854."

There are still a few of these invitations in existence, but they are scarce and are valued highly by the owners. The one from which the above is copied is in the possession of Agent John A. Burkett, of Delphos, who received it a few years ago from C. Ross, the man to whom it was originally issued. In his letter to Mr. Burkett, in which was enclosed the ancient paper, Mr. Ross says: "The first roadmaster was Oscar Simons and among the first trainmen and engine crews were John Kelker, Henry Kelker, Charlie Case, Tony Kelker, Pat Conn, Richard Skinner and Pat Rorick." All these men are remembered by the older men now in the service. The first locomotive on the road was brought west by water, via Lake Erie and the canal, and was set up and put on the tracks first at Delphos, Tony Kelker assisting in the work. This engine was named "The Lima" and it was first used in building the road eastward from Delphos. The next engine to arrive was called "Mad Anthony," of which Mr. Kelker was for three years the engineer. Mr. Kelker is still running an engine over the same line. Although three score years old, he is still vigorous and good for many more years of service.

DEATH OF AN OLD SHOPMAN.

The Venerable Rae E. Renfrew, who was stricken with paralysis two or three years ago, died Saturday evening, aged seventy-eight years. The deceased leaves two sons, Robert G. and Benton E., and two daughters, Mrs. H. H. Bosler, of this city, and Mrs. Mary M. Thumm, of Easton, N. D., to mourn his departure. Mrs. Renfrew died several years ago and since that sad event Mr. Renfrew has made his home with his son, Benton, who resides at No. 32 Lavina street, where the funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Renfrew came to Fort Wayne about thirty years ago, from Pennsylvania, and soon secured employment in the Pittsburg shops, where he remained until taken with the disease which terminated in his death. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association and during his long illness received aid from that worthy organization.

BABY STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

The engine hauling Pittsburg freight train No. 61, west-bound, struck and badly injured a little child at Kosciusko, Ind., at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The particulars of the accident are not known here, but it is supposed that the little one had strayed from home and was playing upon the tracks. The child's legs were broken and it was supposed to be injured internally. The name of the father is M. Bibler.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED.

The mangled remains of a man were discovered lying by the tracks near Plymouth at 10:30 o'clock last night. There was nothing about the remains by which they could be identified. Death was no doubt caused by the man falling from a Pittsburg freight train, but which train has not yet been discovered. The remains were turned over to the coroner at Plymouth.

BRIEF MENTION.

Pittsburg engine 53 is in the shop for repairs.

Wabash engine 191 is undergoing repairs in the shops in this city.

Dispatcher C. M. LaRue, of the Pennsylvania, went to Chicago this morning.

Master Mechanic P. F. Smith, of Crestline, was the guest of Fort Wayne friends over Sunday.

Frank Meyers, hammer boy at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is off duty on account of the death of his grandfather.

W. S. Morris, superintendent of motive power of the Chesapeake and Ohio, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

The Wabash officials have resumed the inspection of the eastern branches of the system and will be in this city tomorrow morning.

The Wabash lines earned in the first week of November $197,651, a decrease as compared with the corresponding week of 1895 of $59,226.

Dennis Martin, the sweeper at the Pittsburg machine shop, has recovered from an illness which kept him from his work for some weeks.

The furniture for the new Wabash hospital at Peru was purchased from a firm in St. Louis. It has already arrived and is being put in place.

A Wabash railway employe reports having seen, some days since, two large, gaunt and famished wolves near the track in the vicinity of Lagro.

H. Jacobs and H. G. E. Neece, of the Pittsburg shops, and F. Gebhardt, of the planing mills, are off duty, the latter on account of sickness in his family.

F. H. Hubbard, one of the officials of the Southern Pacific railroad, passed through this city this morning, riding in his special car attached to Wabash train No. 5.

Louis Kronemiller has taken the place vacated by Herman H. Witte in the Pittsburg planing mills. Mr. Witte has been appointed one of Sheriff Melching's bailiffs.

Revue Industrielle, published in Paris, France, gives an illustration and lengthy description of the large wheel built at the Bass works, in this city, for a firm in Newcastle, Pa. The article is very complimentary to the Bass works.

J. E. Noble left this morning for Indianapolis, thence to St. Louis, on business for the Bass Foundry and Machine works.

Charlie King, clerk at the Bass office, is on duty again, after a serious attack of tonsilitis, which kept him within doors two weeks.

Machinist Charlie Seibt has gone to Ogdensburg, N. Y., to erect a large engine in the Continental Match factory. The engine was built in the Bass works, in this city.

The horseshoe curve on the Pennsylvania road is made still more attractive by three great water reservoirs just completed near by, from which Altoona will be supplied.

The Santa Fe is now hauling more freight than at any time in its history. It is predicted that its gross earnings this month will exceed $3,000,000 and its net earnings exceed $1,000,000.

On Wednesday the Wabash was 1,500 cars behind its orders for grain cars to ship wheat in and the company is handling fully 50 per cent. more coal for manufactories than sixty days ago.

James Trythall, Joseph Carry, John Bonward, M. H. Morrison and J. F. Roal have resumed work at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop after an absence of various lengths and for various reasons.

The Nickel Plate shops at Conneaut, Ohio, which had been running eight hours per day, this morning commenced on full time. The force of workmen has also been increased considerable.

Andrew Stevenson, formerly agent of the Nickel Plate at Columbus, Ohio, and later commercial agent of the Baltimore and Ohio, has been promoted to be a division freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio.

I. G. Welling has been added to the corps of railway detectives, under Lieutenant Stoll. Mr. Welling comes from Cleveland, where a considerable experience in the detective line qualified him for his new and responsible position.

The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road Friday night did the largest freight business that has been done for several weeks. Fifteen heavily loaded freight trains passed through this city from 6 o'clock last night to 6 o'clock this morning.

William Osborn, who died in Waterville, N. Y., on Tuesday, aged eighty-seven years, was a member of the engineering corps which located the Michigan Central across northern Indiana and Michigan, and he was identified in 1868 with the construction of the Union Pacific.

James McCrea, jr., son of First Vice President McCrea, of the Pennsylvania company, on the first of next month becomes engineer of maintenance of way of the Indianapolis and Vincennes. Mr. McCrea, jr., is a graduate of Yale college, and a young man who is sure to make his mark in the railroad world.

The carriage manufacturers of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan held a conference at Cincinnati, Ohio, Thursday, at the Grand hotel and adopted a set of resolutions protesting against the sale of goods to insolvent concerns by supplying men at a large discount, while the solvent firms are compelled to pay 100 per cent. for their wheel and other supplies. There was no organization attempted, the meeting being held solely for the purpose of making a concerted movement against discrimination which is injuring their business.

John Halsworth, one of the Pennsylvania shopmen who was suspended last spring, on account of dull times, was taken into the service again today. He has been assigned to duties in the store room.

Watchman Bollinger, at the Broadway crossing of the Pittsburg, was taken violently ill at 2 o'clock this morning and the patrol wagon was summoned to take him home. He was reported better at noon today.

On Wednesday of this week forty-one carloads of express matter were sent west from Pittsburg over the Pennsylvania lines and the Baltimore and Ohio. Oysters now form an important item of express business.

George Wyatt, Emmett Wyatt, Clark Smith, John Swyhart and James W. Squire, all of Churubusco, formed a hunting party which left over the Wabash this morning for Paragould, Ark. They expect to spend a month in camp.

Machinist C. O. Cook, who has been working in Stony Island for some months, had the misfortune to have his left hand badly injured a week ago. He returned to this city to remain until the wounded hand heals and possibly longer, as he has the promise of work in one of Fort Wayne's shops.

The railroad managers are watching for the two cents a mile bill that is expected to come up when the legislature meets, and will have a good sized lobby there to defeat it. Several attempts have been made to pass the bill making two cents a mile the legal rate of fare, but none has ever got further than an introduction.

The Baltimore and Ohio, it is reported, has entered into a traffic agreement with the Union Pacific for transcontinental business over nearly an air line from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast. That this is the case is evidenced by the appointment of Peter Harvey as Pacific coast freight and passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio, with E. B. Meyers as his assistant.

For the convenience of its stockholders the Pennsylvania Railroad company has recently introduced an innovation in the method of paying dividends. Instead of compelling stockholders to call at the main offices, they are now sent checks payable at some convenient bank, those living out of Philadelphia having their checks drawn on some institution near their homes.

Beginning this evening there will be revival services held in the Berry street M. E. church every night this week except Saturday night. The pastor, C. C. Claiell, desires that every member of the church will be present tonight and bring someone with them. Let us all start in at the beginning and stay until the close. The public is most cordially invited to attend all these services. Rev. J. W. Paschall will preach this evening; subject, "The Endowment of the Holy Spirit," followed by a consecration service.

I have for rent, at 128 Walton avenue, near east yards, a desirable, seven room house, in perfect repair. A very convenient home for a railroad man who takes his train at the east yards.

THINGS ARE SELDOM WHAT THEY SEEM.

1—Actor—Forsaken by all the world! Nothing remains but death. Ah! let me die! Let me die!

2—Farewell! Farewell! I will jump into the sea. Farewell—

3—And just then the stage caught fire—

4—and he was the first man on the fire escape.

CURES EVERY CASE. Dr. Kilmer & Co., South Bend, Ind. Gents—We have placed an additional order for Dr. Kilmer's Sure Headache Cure. We cannot say too much in praise of this medicine. As yet we have not found a case of Headache that it has not cured. Yours respectfully, GLEASON & KNAPP, Druggists, Albion, Mich., March 22, 1894.

LEAVES NO BAD EFFECTS. Dr. Kilmer & Co., South Bend, Ind. Enclosed find twenty-five cents for a box of your Sure Headache Cure. It is the best thing for headache I ever tried, and it leaves no bad effects. Would not be without it. Yours respectfully MRS. E. M. WILSON, Rising City, Neb.

No Campaign Within our Memory has been Conducted with so much Good Feeling, as the one that has just Closed.

That's the right kind of American citizenship. We cannot all see alike and it isn't best that we should. It is through the clash of ideas that the truth is finally established. If error wins it is only for a day. Truth alone is immortal. The courage of one's convictions is always admirable. It wins the respect of friend and foe alike. The conflict over the real soldier's soon fraternize. It is only the stay-at-homes that want to do the fighting after peace is declared.

NOW FOR BUSINESS.

The uncertainty over it is sure to improve. All parties are agreed as to that. Millions of money, hoarded by the poor, will now find its way back into industrial channels. An early session of congress will, by proper legislation, add to the nation's revenues sufficient to meet the current expenses of the government. Prices will make a healthy advance and labor find more steady employment. There's a good time coming and we expect to be in it.

Power's Magic Cream Cure.

WASHINGTON, October 12, 1896.

W. W. Power.

DEAR SIR:—I wish to thank you for the ointment you so kindly gave me. I have used it to relieve a cold which had settled in my head and throat and I found that after one application a great change for the better was produced. I think it is the most effective, simple little remedy I have ever seen, and hope it may do others as much good as it did me. Most sincerely yours,

F. S. HODGES, D. D.
